

The BCS Bulletin

Vol. LV No. 1, February 1996

INSIDE STORY

Although you may be reading this Bulletin in a corner of the world where the snow does not blanket the earth, where ice floes do not clog the river, and where summer life does not retreat into hibernation, you may well remember winters past in the Eastern Townships.

February is harsh, but beautiful. Our campus, as you can see on our cover, appears to be a haven of tranquility. This is an illusion: there is as much activity now as ever – cross-country skiers carve parallelograms through the playing fields and woods, junior students have made ice-slides behind

Grier South, students trudge up to breakfast blissfully apparently indifferent to the early morning cold. Very soon, this snowbound campus will ring to the shouts of laughter and excitement as everyone becomes involved in Winter Carnival '96.

In keeping with this wintry theme, we include poems by two students which may be published in this year's Inscape. Wherever you are, in whatever weather, remember the special joys (and challenges) of winter at school; they do not change.

BLANKET

The snow descends on scattered pillows.
It smothers
the silent city,
transforming the sharp frames of its buildings into new rounded figures.

– Martha Hindess
Form VII

LE LIVRE

Alors que je lisais, un triste soir d'hiver
Du ciel ténébreux il jaillit un éclair
La terre s'alluma tel un flambeau heureux
Qui danse à la joie de revoir la lumière.

Je m'affolais, aveuglé par la clarté soudaine
Puis j'aperçus alors de lumineux mirages
Cet éclat béni fut une lueur souveraine
Elle me montra le ciel, la mer, les nuages.

Je vis le monde de haut, en tout majesté
Je vécus des périls, des risques, des dangers
Je conquis des empires, des pays, des contrées
Mon expérience sublime fut une belle épopee.

Puis je refermai le livre, le cœur ému
Les sublimes mirages avaient soudain disparu
Dehors la nuit dominait la terre
Et je déposai mon livre en ce triste soir d'hiver.

– Sébastien Lahaie
Form VI

Cover Photo by Grant Simeon

CONTENTS

From The Head's Desk

Nancy Layton reflects on life at BCS 2

Founders' Day 1995

Annual Week-end 3

School News

From the pages of The BCS Tie 4

Admissions News 5

Hockey Tour of Europe 6

Mush Morehouse 7

Daisy Pulls It Off 8

Remembrance Day

Armistice Day – 1995 9

Alumni/æ News

Message from the new President 12

Toronto Reunion 13

“Old Boys” 14

Maritime Tour '95 15

Ontario Visit 16

King's Hall News

Class of '45 Reunion 17

Class of '55 Reunion 18

Class of '65 Reunion 19

Compton Art Show / Daisy Tea 20

Toronto Luncheon / Showing Our Colours 21

Annual Giving

1994–'95 22

1995–'96 to date 26

Class News

Milestones 29

Class Notes 30

The BCS Bulletin

Volume LV, Number 1, February 1996

The BCS Bulletin is published twice annually by the Development Department of Bishop's College School for Alumni/æ, Parents and Friends of the school.

Nancy Layton, Head of School

Printed in Canada by:

MJB Litho
All rights reserved.

Editors:

Lewis Evans (BCS '65)
Jane Jelowicki

Correspondence is welcomed and should be addressed to:

The Editor
The BCS Bulletin
Development Office
Bishop's College School
Lennoxville, Québec J1M 1Z8
Canada

Tel.: (819) 566-0227
Fax: (819) 822-8917
E-mail: bcs-admn@praline.net

The Bulletin staff would like to thank the following people for their contributions:

Alice Ross Aird (KHC '45), Gordon Allan,
Sandy Booth, Sara Peck Colby (KHC '65), Cliff Goodwin,
Rae MacCulloch Heenan (KHC '55), Nancy Layton,
Kate Ryffranck, Charles Peacock, Louise St. Jacques,
Mary Cape Usher-Jones (KHC '63), Nelson Williams and Jennifer Winsor (BCS '83).

FROM THE HEAD'S DESK

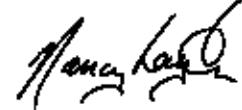

Nancy Layton reflects on life at BCS

It's January at BCS and I don't need to tell you how beautiful the campus looks with the sun shining on the fresh fallen snow, lots of fresh fallen snow! Students and staff have returned from the holiday with the usual full schedule of academics, activities and special events to look forward to. If the first term was any indication, free time will be at a premium for us all.

Each year brings new initiatives and new concerns. In 1996, an area which needs a greater emphasis at BCS is computer education. The next few months will be spent in planning a new computer laboratory for the school and further integration of computers in the education process. Students and teachers alike can use computers to obtain knowledge, process information, and to communicate with people all over the world. Most students in residence bring a computer with them and it will be up to us to maximize this potential that already exists.

Recently, I met with a group of students to ask them for some advice. I wanted to know how they like to spend their free time and whether BCS was providing them with what they needed including an alternative to going to Sherbrooke. The discussion led to a proposal for a student "club" - a place with some pool tables and other games, music, maybe a TV/video, a tuck shop to sell drinks and snacks, and so on. There were suggestions on how it might operate, who might be responsible for its operation, and where it could be located. Their enthusiasm is, I hope, typical of all the students and I have asked them to talk to their classmates and to get some feedback. Student involvement in planning this initiative is the key to its success and I have assured them that I will do my best to ensure that their ideas become reality.

These are but two of the ideas which are being discussed by staff and students. There will always be the daily issues to address but we continue to look to the future so that our students can be assured of quality both in their education and in their life at BCS.

Nancy Layton in her study.

From the left: Mary Lynn Fulton, Mary Hallward (BCS '85), James Booth (BCS '85), Robert Fraser (BCS '85) and Barbara Fraser.

From the left: Kurt Johnson (BCS '84), Richie Setlakwe (BCS '52), John Dunn (BCS '84) and Anne-Marie Dunn.

Marc Bruneau (BCS '90) at the head of the table which includes: Brock Horton (BCS '86), Craig Horton (BCS '85), Stephane Desaulnier (BCS '85), Charles Laplante (BCS '85), Mrs. Craig Horton and Karen Macfarlane.

FOUNDERS' DAY 1995

Annual Week-end

In the beginning of June BCS celebrated its history in the Annual Founders' Day Week-end.

Alumni/æ from the Classes of 1960, 1965, 1975 and 1985 returned to Lennoxville to visit each other in the place that had originally brought them together.

It was also a time to toast Dr. C.L. Ogden Glass (BCS '32 and Headmaster from 1950–1960) and his wife, Janet.

Alumni/æ from far away gathered at the school: John Randolph (BCS '32) and his daughter, Lilia, came from California; Peter Ochs (BCS '49) from Vienna; Justo Eiroa (BCS '85) from Honduras; Grier Cundill (BCS '65) from Oregon; Ron Saykaly and Miller Ayre (both BCS '60) from Kentucky and Newfoundland respectively. And finally, the Glass family: Gord drove in from Ohio, Crick and Lisa flew in from Halifax and Janet and Oggie made the trip from Florida.

At the end of the banquet, three speakers paid tribute to the Glasses. First to speak was Gil Ross. Gil was a former student of Dr. Glass at Ashbury when the latter was practicing the art of Headmastering and then later was the man Oggie hired to head up a new Geography Department at Bishop's University in those post BCS Principle days. Clearly, Gil gave the assembled BCS audience a different perspective on the man.

Second to speak was Miller Ayre, former Head Prefect (for two years) and now the Publisher of Newfoundland's St. John's Evening Telegraph Journal. Miller's wit is of near legendary proportion and he told his listeners of some of the many mysteries the mainlanders had in store for a young Newfoundlander arriving at BCS in the early fifties. High among them was the day when a half holiday was announced to celebrate the arrival of the new GLASS BABY. "These mainlanders are strange people," thought young Ayre. "They can have glass babies!" (That "Glass baby" was with us on that night, having flown in from Halifax!)

Oggie and Janet Glass with Gordon (BCS '65), Crick (BCS '72) and Crick's wife, Lisa.

And finally, a man who has served BCS in many, many capacities over the years, the Glasses' old friend, Hartland Price (BCS '46) rose to pay tribute to both Janet and Oggie – to two others who have served this institution that we care so much about. His speech was short, eloquent and heartfelt – a fitting finale.

At last, Oggie rose to thank everyone; he paused, and turned to his wife, and thanked her the most.

Founders' Day at BCS is a point in our year when, in one way or another, our school pays tribute to some part of its past that has brought it to where it is today. For some, it is a time for reunion, for some, a time for reflection; for everyone it is a time to touch again a world that has been left behind.

Recognised at this table, from the left: Catherine Scott, Fred Scalabrini (BCS '85), Mary Hallward (BCS '85), unknown, unknown, Colin Brown (BCS '85), James Booth (BCS '85), Robert Fraser (BCS '85), Barbara Fraser, Kozue, David Stankaitis (BCS '85).

From the left: Michael McMaster (BCS '57), Mrs. Tom Price, Raymond Setlakwe (BCS '46), Brad Mitchell (BCS '53), Marc-André Panet Raymond (BCS '80), Ian Graham (BCS '80), Mike McGee (BCS '80), Ann Mitchell (BCS '53), Mike Huband (BCS '57) and Tom Price (BCS '48).

SCHOOL NEWS

From the pages of the BCS Tie

BCS Student Heads to Nationals

The Story of Vth Former, Paul Morrison

Paul Morrison capped off an exceptional cross-country season with a very respectable 115th place showing in the Junior Nationals which were held in Montreal on November 25th. What made this Fifth Former's performance even more impressive was the fact that he was competing in the under-19 category.

Paul was born in Newfoundland and began his running career at Gander Junior High. He joined BCS last year and in his first season finished fourth in the Regionals and thirty-first in the Provincials. This past summer Paul competed in many 5K races in Chatham, Ontario, where he now resides with his family. He won every event in which he competed and was in fine form for the 1995 cross-country season.

Paul set his sights on finishing this season as one of the top three in the province, yet quickly realised that first was well within his reach. He competed in seven races in which he left the field behind. This year's accomplishments included the setting of a new school record for the annual BCS Cross-Country Run and the Provincial title as the top runner in Quebec in his category.

It was a tremendous season for Paul and his success contributed immensely to the Athletic programme at BCS.

Science

Sandy Booth

The Science department continues to be a hive of activity this year. Students in Form II to V are all involved in required science courses and a large proportion of Form VI and VII students have also elected to continue in these areas. Increasingly computers are being integrated into the curriculum within the classroom as more software is being developed and greater numbers of students are involved in both group and individual research activities. The department has recently been connected to the Internet and access has been made available to students who are involved in environmental issues.

This year is particularly exciting as four new teachers have become active in the Science programme. Andrew Blair, who is also Houseparent of Chapman House, has joined the Science department in a full-time capacity teaching Chemistry and Physical Science and Mike Mooney, Houseparent in Smith House, is offering a very popular optional course in Introduction to Technology. In addition, Andrea Bartnikas, a BCS Alumna, is responsible for two classes, Physical Science and Human Biology, while Nancy Layton, Head of the School, is also teaching a Human Biology class. Experienced teachers in the department have also had the opportunity to guide and mentor three student teachers from Bishop's University and the University of Waterloo for varying periods in their classes this term.

The presence of so many energetic and interesting new teachers has been a wonderful stimulus for the entire Science programme. Students and faculty alike are working hard, exchanging ideas and sharing suggestions, and truly enjoying all the new developments in the department.

Français

Louise St. Jacques

A lors que la session bat son plein et que les élèves et les professeurs pensent déjà aux examens de décembre, il est intéressant de noter quelques faits saillants des mois passés.

En août dernier, les membres du département apprenaient avec joie que Denis Guyot enseignerait à temps plein à compter de septembre. Ce changement nous a permis d'offrir un cours pour débutants à tous les niveaux!

Comme dans les années passées, les élèves des niveaux I et II ont assisté, en octobre dernier, au Salon du Livre de l'Estrie. Par la même occasion, trois de nos élèves, Nathalie Saad (secondaire V), Maxime Descôteaux (secondaire IV) et Pierre-Olivier Descôteaux (secondaire I), ont représenté le Collège au marathon d'écriture organisé pour les écoles de la région. Pierre-Olivier Descôteaux a reçu une mention pour son texte et s'est mérité la somme de 25$. Egalement, un autre élève de secondaire I, Philippe Myhal a reçu une mention dans la catégorie des 10-13 ans pour son texte écrit dans le cadre du concours littéraire organisé par le journal La Tribune. Il s'est mérité un livre. Félicitations à nos deux gagnants!

Dans un autre ordre d'idées, les étudiants de deux groupes de Form VII (français, anglais) collaborent à la publication du journal bilingue, Echo-BCS. La première édition paraîtra sous peu et les éditeurs en sont Pierre-Etienne Vachon pour le français et Elina Brobeck pour l'anglais.

ADMISSIONS NEWS

Bringing new and prospective parents together around the globe

Scotland – Victoria Thorburn (KHC, '68, top row, 3rd from right) entertains prospective parents at her home in Edinburgh.

Thailand – Gordon Allan, Director of Admissions, with Tivasook, Prand and Piya Chudasring, parents and sister of Pan (Form IV) at their lovely home in Bangkok.

Bermuda – Susanne and David Notman (parents of Stephen in Form VI) with Nancy Layton, Head of School, and Gordon Allan, Director of Admissions at the Royal Bermuda Yacht Club. Nancy and Gordon were fortunate to be guests at the Notman's delightful home shown above in Paget.

The Admissions Office has carefully planned out areas to market this year. Should you wish to support Admissions in any capacity while we are in your area please contact Gordon Allan in the Admissions Office. The following is a list of future cities to be visited and corresponding dates:

San Diego, California Feb. 19–25

St. Andrew's by the Sea, New Brunswick Feb. 24–27

Mexico City and Guadalajara, Mexico Mar. 19–27

Please notify the Admissions Office if you would like to receive a copy of our new prospectus and brochures for display in your office or home, or for a family who may be interested in learning more about BCS.

SCHOOL NEWS

Hockey Tour of Europe

When most people were relaxing after the Christmas rush, the senior boys hockey team embarked on a first. Accompanied by their coaches, Nelson Williams and Albert MacDonald, as well as two parents, Michael Cooper, father of Seiji in Form VI and David Archibald, team doctor and father of Curtis in Form VI, the group left on December 27th for a tour of Europe. There was a dual purpose to the trip, to play hockey against European teams and to live a European experience.

The group spent twelve days visiting Holland, Belgium and Germany. Although they were kept busy sightseeing in the ten cities they visited, they managed to play three exciting games along the way.

A particular highlight was the time spent over the New Year holiday with Richard Vervoordt (BCS '95) and his family. Dick is now studying at Western but was home for the holidays and it was a unique opportunity for him to catch up on news with friends from school. The Vervoordt's were wonderful hosts and welcomed the group to a very special New Year's Day dinner at their castle near Antwerp.

The games played were against local teams in Utrecht, Rotterdam and Krefeld. Although they lost two of the three games, the team thoroughly enjoyed the challenge and looks forward to being able to repeat the experience.

— Nelson Williams

New Year's Day in Belgium – From the left: Mrs Vervoordt, Coach Nelson Williams, Mr. Vervoordt and Dick Vervoordt (BCS '95).

Coach Albert MacDonald with team doctor, David Archibald.

On the ice in Krefeld, Germany – Our senior team, wearing uniforms designed for the tour, with the German "Elite under 18" National Team.

Mush Morehouse long on wisdom and stories

by Gordie Johnson – Reprinted from The Stanstead Journal, January 17, 1996

LENNOXVILLE — Hockey fans who wish to take a trip down memory lane need go no further than the Bishop's College School Arena in Lennoxville. There, one will find Frank (Mush) Morehouse putting the final touches to a new sheet of ice or sharpening skates for an eager youngster ready to try out that glistening fresh surface.

With very little prodding, Mush spins yarns of his playing days in the senior leagues of New Brunswick, Ontario and Quebec. Names of old hockey stars from the past when the boys played for the love of the game and the pride of winning roll off his tongue like silk. McIntyre, Carnegie, Demers, McDougall, and others that made the big time such as Harvey, McNeil, Plante, Gadsby, Poile and many others too numerous to mention here.

Times were tough when Morehouse was growing up during the Depression days in Fredericton, N.B. He played hockey in the streets and didn't learn to skate until his thirteenth year when a neighbor gave him a pair of girl's figure skates.

"They were those white high-heeled skates," he told me in a recent interview at the BCS arena in Lennoxville. "I sure took a lot of ribbing over that but I learned to skate on them. The next year I bought a second-hand pair of hockey skates for $3.75 and spent hours practicing my turns on the St. John River."

Have hockey stick, will travel

He began his hockey career in his hometown of Fredericton, where in 1937-38 he and school chum Manny McIntyre helped lead the Capitols to their first New Brunswick title. That summer the arena burnt down, and after being rejected by the armed forces, he ended up in the Northern Ontario town of Schumacher where he lived with the parents of New York Ranger star Dean Prentice.

In 1941-42, Mush and McIntyre played with Buffalo Ankerite, a mining company in Timmins. McIntyre played on a line with Herbie and Ossie Carnegie and this was believed to be the first negro line in hockey history. All three, along with Mush, played for the Sherbrooke St. Francis hockey club five years down the road and following that played for a year together in France for the Paris Racing Club.

In 1942-43, he moved on to Toronto where he played for three years in the OHA Senior circuit under retired Leaf rearguard Red Horner. He also played double-headers two nights a week in an outlaw league against the likes of Bill Gadsby, Bud Poile and Billy Taylor.

It was here that Mush and his linemates were scouted by former Hab Johnny Gagnon, who at that time was a scout for the Providence Reds. They were invited to training camp in Shawinigan Falls. Mush stayed in Shawinigan that winter and played for their team in the Quebec Senior Hockey League. Some of his opponents in this circuit included Doug Harvey, Gerry McNeil and Floyd Curry, all of whom later went on to star with the Montreal Canadiens.

The following season, school chum McIntyre phoned Mush and asked him to come and play in Sherbrooke.

"I thought I would go there for one year," said Mush. "And here it is 50 years later and I'm still here."

The winter of 1948, Mush went to Paris to play for Le Racing Club de Paris, a team made up mostly of Canadians. That was an Olympic year and the Paris Club played the RCAF Flyers who were representing Canada in the Olympics. Mush scored three goals in that matchup as the Paris club came away with a 5-3 win over the future gold medal winners.

He returned home and played in the Eastern Townships Intermediate League with Magog and Richmond where he helped the Flyers to a league title.

Refereeing lands job at BCS

Mush began refereeing games in 1950 and moved up the ladder fast. "I was referee-in-chief for quite a long time," he said. One of his protégés was Marcel Vaillancourt, who grew up in Ayer's Cliff. "At one time Marcel and I had 40 referees under us," said Mush. "The first game that Marcel worked in Coaticook he got $2.50 for. After that he worked his way up to one of the top three referees in Canada and worked the World Hockey Championships."

Mush first came to BCS when he started refereeing games there in 1955. As referee-in-chief he was always on the lookout for fresh talent. He found some at that school. "Sam Abbott was one of my pupils," he said. "I took him and started him out in that intermediate 'A' league in Waterloo. That was his first venture and what a wild, wild night. Sam never forgot that one."

His coaching career started during the Fifties when he coached the Maroons to the Sherbrooke Junior League Championship. He spent one winter in Rock Island with the Jets and then in the early sixties he took over the helm at Bishop's University.

"Bishops hadn't won a game in 10 years when I took over," he said. "We didn't win the first year but showed a lot of improvement in the second half. The second year we finished second and in my third year we were third. One of my great little hockey players there was Norman Webster. He was a gritty little player and one of my prize guys. I depended on him a lot."

As if the hockey business wasn't enough to keep this man busy, he started working as a harness racing judge.

"I worked as a judge at the race track for 15 years. The people who introduced me to this were Ken Gale of Ayer's Cliff and Lyn McDougall, my old hockey mate. We were at their place for dinner one night and they said let's go to the races. I got the bug right off. I started at the bottom as a patrol judge and finally ended up as a presiding judge. I used to work as an associate judge at Blue Bonnets, Three Rivers and Quebec. I also went to work at Rideau Carleton for a couple of weeks to replace someone there that was on vacation. The manager there was a chap by the name of Monroe who I had played hockey against in Toronto. Des Smith, who I played hockey with in Shawinigan, was the announcer and the presiding judge was Black Jack Stewart who was a big hockey star with the Detroit Red Wings. After the races we would go into Mr. Monroe's office and spend the evening shooting the guff about the old times."

Still taking an interest at the rink

He is near retirement now but still spends about two days a week at the BCS rink. You will find him there on Sunday mornings and during the BCS Crusader home games. He encourages them from the sidelines and is quick to call them over for a few words of wisdom when he sees a player out of position or one who has made an obvious blunder.

And if the boys in the purple and white really want to improve their game they just have to sit and listen to Mush spin them a few yarns about what to look for on that sparkling sheet of ice.

Morehouse today, sharpening a skate at BCS arena.

SCHOOL NEWS

Daisy Pulls It Off

Producing a play is a very complicated thing. It has been said that the first time one ruins a production is in the choosing of the play, the second time is in the casting, and the third is in the directing and design.

In late November of 1995, the BCS Players' Club presented Denise Deegan's Daisy Pulls It Off.

What a choice of play it was!

Set at "Grangewood", a public (i.e. private) school for girls in England, this play was full of positive good fun, of jolly hockey sticks and "topping stunts", of "playing up and playing the game" and of always remembering that "the honour of Grangewood is at stake." It told the story of a scholarship student, Daisy, who arrived at the school to a mixed reception from those decent types who welcomed her and those nasty ones who hoped she would fail. Daisy was accused of cheating, of lying, of "sneaking" on others; she was confined to the "san", and was on the brink of expulsion when – for the honour of Grangewood – she was called upon to play in the championship (field) hockey game, where (surprise! surprise!) she scored the tying and winning goals! No sooner than that but she broke bounds to head up the rescue of her arch enemy from a dangerous cliff. In the end, she discovered the school's hidden treasure, made friends of enemies and was accepted for the wonderful girl she was. In short, Daisy pulled it off!

And what a cast!

Katherine Eddy – daughter of Bruce (BCS '67) and sister of Sarah (BCS '93) – played Daisy; Lara Jelowicki – sister of Irena (BCS '92), Amanda (BCS '93) and Tessa (BCS '94) – is the latest of that clan to act for the school as she played Daisy's best chum, Trixie. These two were supported by a terrific cast of bright, energetic, nice and nasty characters, the nastiest of whom (Sybil Burlington) was played by Emily Evans, daughter of Lewis (BCS '65) and granddaughter of R. Lewis Evans, long-time teacher and Houseparent at BCS, for whom the theatre is named.

The all-important hockey match.

Our new Art teacher, Myles Vivares, decided that the best way to learn to swim at BCS was to jump into the deep end, and so he took on the design of the show. Two old veterans, Charles Peacock and Lewis Evans, came out of retirement to share the directing and did passably well....

In the end, the audience was delighted as Daisy moved from catastrophe to catastrophe, as the plot moved effortlessly from scene to scene – and as anyone in this business will tell you, the more effortless it appears, the more effort there has been!

A high point of the production week came on the final, special night, when the cast was honoured to have in the audience ten Alumnae from King's Hall and their old music teacher, Dorothy Hewson. It was a memorable end to a memorable production.

– Lewis Evans and Charles Peacock

*Carrying on the tradition,
Lara Jelowicki and Katherine Eddy with Emily Evans looking on.*

Encore! The cast is joined by members of the audience. Old Girls from KHC, Jocelyn Shaw ('43) still looks good in a tunic and Francie Montgomery ('61), lovely in her old school blazer.

REMEMBRANCE DAY

Armistice Day – 1995

The address given by Lewis Evans on Armistice Day in St. Martin's Chapel

John Alexander Kenny (1916–1942)

About one half hour's drive this side of Ottawa on the Quebec side of the river, there's a town called Buckingham. This town has for years been dominated by the James Maclaren Company Ltd. – originally a lumber mill, now a hydro plant and producer of forestry products. The Maclaren family was virtually responsible for the development of Buckingham.

In 1906, Robert M. Kenny became General Manager and in the following years, he married Maclaren's daughter, Jessie, fathered seven children and by the time of his death in 1945, had become the company president.

The fourth of their seven children was John Alexander Kenny.

John lived in Buckingham and spent his summer holidays at the family cottage on nearby McGregor Lake. He was the oldest son and throughout his childhood, he had an interest in things military. His best friend between the age of 10 and 14 was Strome Galloway, now the author of 5 books on the war having spent 29 years in the services. They shared their obsession with the military, borrowing each other's books on the heroes of the First War, setting up mock battles with lead soldiers on Mr. Kenny's pool table, playing soldier with wooden rifles and hand-me-down uniforms; in fact, Col. Galloway remembers that John had such a fascination with the Highland regiments that he persuaded his mother to make tartan kilts for them.

I asked Col. Galloway if this level of interest in the military was normal for that time; he thought not – that, yes, boys sought adventure, and yes, the adventure in those days pertained to war, but that their fascination was extreme.

In 1929, John Kenny came to the Prep School at BCS. He was not quite 13 years old.

His six years on this campus were good years – years of accomplishment. He was a boxing champion, a gymnastics champion, a goalie in hockey and a football player. He was a librarian, an actor, and in his final year, he was a Prefect and the Commanding Officer of the Cadet Corps.

So positive was his time at BCS and so enthusiastic was he about it that his younger brother, Charlie, caught the bug. In 1932, when John was starting his fourth year, Charlie accompanied his family down to Lennoxville for Thanksgiving week-end. When he saw how happy John was, he insisted on staying even though he was only ten years old.

John Alexander Kenny

Upon graduating from BCS, John lived in Montreal where he worked at the Bank of Nova Scotia, played hockey for McCall-Frontenac and joined the Black Watch – getting now a kilt for real.

He still spent time in Buckingham and there he developed a relationship with Ida Cressy who had been at King's Hall when John was at BCS. In the late 30s, they started a courtship and on April 22nd, 1940, they were married.

War had broken out in Europe, and John's commitment to the Black Watch increased. Almost immediately after their wedding, he left for England. It took Ida two months to pull enough strings to be allowed to follow him. She sailed on the Duchess of Richmond on the 22nd of June. For just under three months, they lived together, first in the north of England in a village called Catrick Bridge, and then in the south in Aldershot. Here, Ida boarded with an English lady, worked as a volunteer in the canteen at the Catholic Soldiers' Club and saw her husband when she could.

For his part, John trained and trained; he took every opportunity afforded him to be with his bride, but all too often, he was confined to barracks. The threat of the

REMEMBRANCE DAY

German invasion was upon them and time and again, the enemy dropped their bombs much too close.

By mid-September, John could tolerate no longer the danger to Ida and asked her to book passage back to Canada. She did not want to go, but agreed to be fatalistic about it. She would go to London to see if there was a way home, and if not, she would stay. This she did, and found passage on the following day – September 22nd – five months to the day since their wedding. She sailed on the Duchess of Richmond – the same ship that had brought her over in the spring.

She returned to Buckingham; she worked for James Maclaren Company Ltd.

She never saw her husband again.

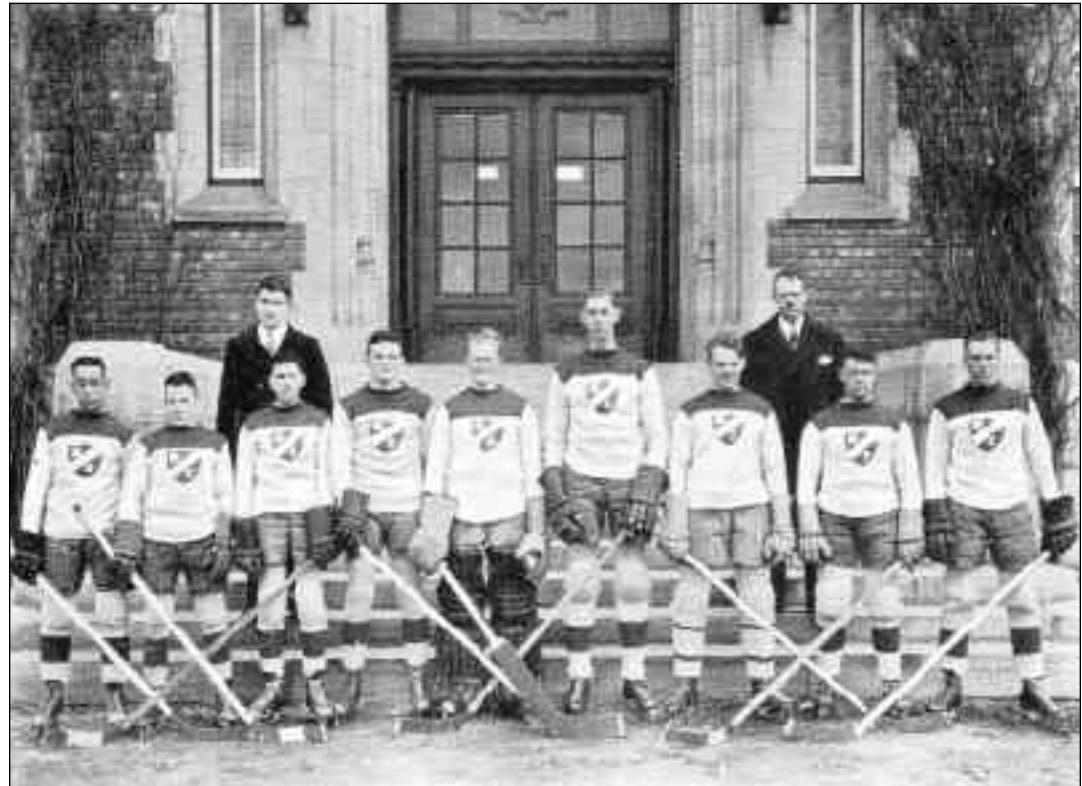

Weeks slipped into months and months into years. She worried about her husband, but it was wartime, and she felt that she was more fortunate than many.

Meanwhile, John went on with his training. He was transferred from the Black Watch to a special intelligence unit but it was not until August 1942, almost two years after his wife had returned to Canada, that he saw action – his first action. It was the famous battle of Dieppe.

When asked how she thought he would have felt, Ida's answer was immediate: "Oh, he loved the military; he would have been pleased he was going." She added, "When you're young, nothing's going to happen to you, you know...."

A textbook on Canadian history reports the events at Dieppe this way:

Since 1940, the Germans had fortified the French coast with the Atlantic Wall. At Dieppe, this fortification was on a cliff overlooking the beach. Barbed wire entanglements, concrete pill-boxes, coastal guns and artillery emplacements had been installed. When at dawn of August 19, 1942, the

From the Midsummer 1935 Magazine

H.E. Griffiths, Coach

C.G.M. Grier, Headmaster

G. Beckett, L.W. L. Webster, Centre J. Kemp, R.W. W.E. Norrish, R.D. J.A. Kenny, (Capt.) Goal

P.V. Colditz, L.D. G.E. Cross, R.W. M. Castonguay, Centre M.G. Bell, L.W.

Canadians attempted a landing on the beach, they were under fire from the heavily defended enemy positions. Many of the assault troops never landed – they were blown up on their landing craft by shore batteries. Those who did manage to get on shore were under constant fire, and many were killed before they ever reached the fortifications. Some of the troops penetrated one or two miles inland, only to be driven back.

Of the 6,000 men who took part in the raid, 5,000 were Canadians, and of these, 900 were killed, 500 wounded and 2,000 were taken prisoners.

Canada paid a frightful price during the few morning hours of August 19, 1942.

John was in command of his own small advanced unit of six men. They landed north of Dieppe at a place called Pourville and wasted no time in moving several miles inland. They paused for a moment in a clump of trees and almost immediately were hit by mortar fire. All were badly wounded.

At this point, and for a very long time, there was no trace

Lieut. J.A. Kenny, The Black Watch (RHR) of Canada.
Killed at Dieppe.

after Dieppe – presumed dead.”

What those years were like for John’s parents, I cannot imagine.

His father was a man of wealth and influence, and he did what he could to learn what had happened to his son, but the answers were few and far between. Mr. Kenny died in 1945 knowing no more about his son’s fate other than that he was “presumed dead”. There has never been an official word.

Those years for Ida were filled with anxiety.

Among other memories, she recalls one night in August of 1942, she awoke with an inexplicable searing pain in her stomach.

Later she calculated that it had been before dawn on August 19.

Shortly after Dieppe, she received a letter to say that John was missing. Her reaction to this was to go off by herself, to go to the cottage on McGregor Lake, but this was prevented by the family who worried that she was having a breakdown.

She joined the Women’s Royal Naval Reserves (known as the WRENS) as an instructor. She was stationed first in what is now Cambridge, Ontario, and after that in Halifax and Sydney. She immersed herself in her work, hoping of John. He was listed as “missing after Dieppe”.

In those days, BCS published two magazines a year, and during the war there were lists of Old Boys who were serving their country or of those who had lost their lives in that service. In the Christmas 1942 Magazine, John Alexander Kenny was listed as “missing after Dieppe”. In the Midsummer ’43 edition, again “missing after Dieppe”; Christmas ’43, “missing after Dieppe”; Midsummer ’44, “missing after Dieppe”; Christmas ’44, “missing after Dieppe”; Midsummer ’45, over two and a half years later, “missing against hope, believing against the odds, that John had been captured. Not every prisoner-of-war was accounted for by the enemy; she believed that John was one of those.

In Sydney, she became friends with a certain lady and she told this lady all about John and about the uncertainty of his fate. Late in 1944, this lady phoned to say that Ida had better come over right away. When she arrived, she was introduced to her friend’s brother, a padre who had been on the beach at Dieppe. He had seen John, badly wounded, lying on a wall, waiting for transport to safety. They had talked. Then the padre saw John boarded on a landing craft and taken out to sea.

The craft sustained a direct hit and went down. All aboard were drowned.

John’s wound, sustained early in the morning French time – before dawn in Canada – had been in the stomach....

In a moment, you will hear read the names of 127 boys and three Masters – all of whom lost their lives serving our country – fighting for the ideals that they had been taught here in this, our school. For each name on that list there is a story. And each story touched others who suffered loss – the loss of a son, the loss of a brother, the loss of a husband.

This was the story of just one of those people – John Alexander Kenny – J.A. Kenny.

His is one of the names you will hear read this morning.
He is one of the people we are here to remember.

FOUNDERS’ DAY WEEKEND

Friday and Saturday
May 31 and June 1, 1996

Special class reunions for the classes ending with “1” or “6” (1991, 1986, 1981, 1976, 1971, 1966, 1961, 1956, etc.... but everyone is welcome!)

- Alumni/æ Games • Rugby, Tennis and Softball •
- Alumni/æ Cricket • Tours of the School •
- Class Activities and Reunion Receptions •

Mark your calendars now!

ALUMNI/Æ NEWS

A message from the new President of the Alumni/æ Association

B.C.S. Alumni/æ Association

LENNOXVILLE, QUÉBEC
J1M 1Z8

Dear Fellow Alumni/æ,

1983

1996

BCS Alumni Association Board of Directors 1995-96

President

Jennifer Winsor '83

Vice-President

Kurt Johnson '84

Directors

Andrew Bissett '84

Marc Bruneau '90

Neil Cunningham '77

Timon Deichmann '88

John C. Dunn '84

John Gilmour '83

Sarah Ivory '79

Alex Johnston '88

Nicholas Lomasney '76

Douglas Mitchell '79

Marty Pommier '92

Scott Pritchard '74

Geoff Reford '83

Fred Scalabrini '85

David Stankaitis '85

Carlotta Stoker Di Fiore '81

Secretary

Cliff Goodwin

Let me start by wishing you all a happy and healthy New Year.

BCS Alumni/æ have had a busy fall 1995. We held the Montreal fall get-together after the Annual General Meeting at the MBSC on October 26th. Both events were well-attended, and the AGM was short so that the reunion could be long. Gatherings were also held in Toronto and Ottawa so that our new Head of School, Nancy Layton, would have an opportunity to meet Alumni/æ in those cities.

In November, members of our board hosted the VIth and VIIth Forms at the third annual Alumni/æ Brunch at the Lennoxville Golf Club. We hold this event each year to introduce senior BCS students to the "Alumni/æ Way". Turnout was enthusiastic, despite the fact that the BCS play Daisy Pulls It Off wrapped the night before, and many of the students were exhausted from their efforts over the week. As usual, the food was wonderful and everyone enjoyed the opportunity to relax and chat in a teacher-free environment.

Annual Giving has had a successful first half – due in part to our decision to mail out a copy of Inscape, our award-winning student literary publication, along with donation requests. We remain, however, behind our goal of matching the success of the '93/'94 campaign. To those of you who have already given, a heartfelt thank-you. To those who have not yet – please consider at least matching your last donation, whenever it was given! If we all do our part, I'm confident we can reach our goal.

We look forward to an exciting spring. First there is the BCS Players' Club production of Romeo and/et Juliette coming to Montreal on April 27th; this is a bilingual adaptation of the play we all know, and we are delighted that the school has finally heard our cries to have a BCS play brought in to the city. We expect to see the show SOLD OUT!

Second, there is the annual Founders' Day on June 1st, with the Annual Golf Tournament the day before, May 31st. This year's reunion classes are the "ones and sixes" which means that the class of '71 should plan to return for their 25th reunion, '76 for their 20th and so on. I look forward to seeing as many of you as possible at all of these events.

Kind Regards,

Toronto Reunion

The 18th of October was a BCS day in Toronto. It began with a 10:30 tee-off at Devil's Pulpit where, the course was the clear victor over its challengers,

Lewis Evans (BCS '65), Cliff G o o d w i n,

Nancy Layton and host, Scott Abbott (BCS '67).

A sprint against the traffic brought the BCS contingent to the RCYC barely in time for the reception where about fifty Torontonians gathered to see each other, to hear about the school and to meet the new Head. It was a typical delightful Toronto reunion and as always, we thank Graham Hallward (BCS '74) and Mary Cape Usher-Jones (KHC '63) for their help in getting it all ready and supported.

A perk of the new job! Nancy Layton stands with Scott Abbott (BCS '67) having played the beautiful Devil's Pulpit golf course.

Meeting the new Head of School – Nancy Layton is joined by David Stevenson (BCS '82), John Ross (BCS '48) and Evan Ballantyne (BCS '78).

From the left: Mike McGee (BCS '80) showing off his door prize, Bruce Davis (BCS '80), Michael Reedyjk (BCS '81) and Mike Weir (BCS '78).

KHC '63 surround our new Head – From the left: Anne Evans Belton, Mary Cape Usher-Jones, Nancy Layton, Janet Burgoine Partridge, and Lalage Wright Hackett.

From the left: Stephen McMahon, Diana Boyd McMahon (BCS '77), Sue Hibbard Muddiman (BCS '79), Scott Muddiman (BCS '77) and Director of Development, Lewis Evans (BCS '65).

Another winner! David Languedoc (BCS '70) holding the BCS sweatshirt he won in the door prize draw, Yaeko Munemasa and Ric Howson (BCS '67).

Almost a class reunion – From the left: Grace Marcar (BCS '85), Mary Sue Allard McKinnon (BCS '85), Karen McFarlane and Brock Horton (BCS '86).

ALUMNI/Æ NEWS

“Old Boys”

An oddity about BCS is that the Thanksgiving week-end is called “Old Boys” – not “Old Boys’ Week-end”, not “Old Boys’ and Old Girls’ Week-end”, not “Alumni or Alumni/æ Week-end – just “Old Boys”. This, one would expect, must be a hold-over from “the bad old days” of single sex education, but that’s what makes it so strange! I was here then, and I never heard it referred to even as “Old Boys’ Week-end” – it was always “Thanksgiving” or “Prize Giving”. When I returned here as a teacher, four years after co-education had started, it had become “Old Boys”. Even the girls called it “Old Boys”!

Enough of the history!

This year’s “October Reunion Week-End For Young Alumni/æ” (acronymically speaking, ORWEFYA) saw the annual gathering of the recently (and in the case of Christian Hollands’, not-so-recently) graduated clan. The annual games were played – soccer for the girls, football and soccer for the boys – and receptions were started at the school on Friday evening and Saturday noon – receptions which then adjourned to be carried on elsewhere.

But the pictures tell a better story....

’94 was a very good year! Alex Cobbett, Charles Marleau and Ian Henderson tell Nancy Layton all about it.

Jeff Bishop (BCS '89) and Timon Deichmann (BCS '88).

Sophie Vezina (BCS '92), John Dench (BCS '91) and Kedrin Simms (BCS '94).

Neil Cunningham (BCS '77) with his son Mark (BCS '2010!). David Notman, father of Hugh (BCS '94), and Steve (BCS '97), Nancy Layton.

Tobin Peacock (BCS '91), with Iain Detchon (BCS '94) and Jonathon Younker (BCS '94).

The Victorious Football Team

Old Boys Soccer – Back row, from the left: Sameer Jaffer, Iain Detchon, Steve Shashoua, Phil Côté, J.C. Hamelin, Tony Girardin, Marty Pommier, Kevin Peacock, Felix Roberge. Front row, from the left: Neil Cunningham, Mark Bandrauk, Alain Gregoire, Mike Ziney, Jeff Bishop, Timon Deichmann.

Old Girls Soccer – Back row, from the left: Nathalie Poirier, Flora Hanitijo, Niki Elias, Michelyn Poirier, Anabel Pinero, Julia Ralph, Sophie Vezina, Stephanie Jessop. Front row: Lucy Gray-Donald, Liz Drake, Sally Goodwin, Dina Nelson.

Maritime Tour '95

The annual Development Tour to the Maritimes is fast becoming an established event. That dynamic duo, Goodwin and Jelowicki, beer and food in hand, head down East to catch up on news and visit with recent grads in their new settings. This year, Jane Jelowicki and Cliff Goodwin hit Fredericton first, on November 9, where they were once again warmly welcomed by the MacDonald family, Pam and Duncan (BCS '65) and their daughter Ali (BCS '94). Halifax came next and the Development Duo were fortunate to be hosted by Gen Bédard (BCS '92) who lives in a lovely house on the water. Once again, many thanks to Ilena Jelowicki (BCS '92) and Kathy McCulloch (KHC '63) for their terrific organisational skills, Ilena even turned out to be a gourmet cook, preparing many different delights for the party. The third stop was Sackville where Sally Goodwin (BCS '91) and boyfriend, Travis Tait, hosted a delightful reception at Travis's home. What will we do next year when these loyal alumnae will have degrees in hand and be off to other fields of endeavour! Any suggestions out there?

At the Macdonald's in Fredericton

Standing, l to r: Gabrielle Slowey (BCS '90), Alison McDonald (BCS '93), Jane Jelowicki of the Development Department and Duncan Macdonald (BCS '65). Kneeling: Pam Macdonald and seated is Gillian Castonguay Flood (KHC '62).

Relaxed in Sackville

From the left: Nick Ellis (BCS '92), T.J. Witte (BCS '95), Sally Goodwin (BCS '91), Jeremy Oldland (BCS '91), Amy Donnachie (BCS '91), Adam Yanow (BCS '89), Charlie Goodwin (BCS '90), not to forget the mascot, Sheba!

The great turnout in Halifax

Back row, from the left: Graham Gunn, host, Pascal Gellrich (BCS '94), Kathy McCulloch (KHC '63), Jane Jelowicki, Chris Nash (BCS '95), Jenna Glover (BCS '94), Adrian Cox (BCS '93), Melissa Barsoski (BCS '95), friend. Seated from the left: Nick Scheib (BCS '91), Alex Hackett (BCS '94), Oliver Drake (BCS '94), John Partridge (BCS '94), Christina Faucher (BCS '95), Maureen Reesor (BCS '95), friend. On the floor, from the left: Erica Marosi (BCS '92), Geneviève Bédard (BCS '92), Ilena Jelowicki (BCS '92), Tessa Jelowicki (BCS '94).

ALUMNI/Æ NEWS

A Visit to Recent Grads in Ontario

The Development Duo had such a good time in the Maritimes that they decided to head west as well this year and visited recent grads in Ottawa, Kingston and London. In each city there was a warm welcome starting with Aaron Patella (BCS '93) in Ottawa, moving on to Kingston where Amanda Jelowicki (BCS '93) and Ann Heenan (BCS '89) organised a terrific reception in Ann's cosy apartment and finally to London, where Phil Côté (BCS '91) gathered the grads attending Western. This was a first and it is hoped not a last, the Development team should be heading to Ontario very soon. Look out for news of our visit.

BCS grads in Kingston – Back row: Anne Heenan (BCS '89) and Ian Gurekian (BCS '93). Middle row, from the left: Jamie McLaren (BCS '93), Amanda Jelowicki (BCS '93), Helen Hawketts (BCS '88), Adam Butler (BCS '93).
Front row: Guy

Late but welcome arrivals in London,
Jonathon Younker (BCS '93)
and Clodagh Slowey (BCS '93).

A Class of '91 group in London – From the left: Erin Moran, Michelyn Poirier, Ian Belton, Guiomar Smeets, Phil Côté and Kira Smeets.

Reunion in Ottawa

Nancy Layton and Lewis Evans bombed up to Ottawa on Monday November 13, through a snowstorm. They met with more than twenty Ottawa area based alumni/æ and friends of the school. Special thanks to Matthew Kenny who once again provided the Ottawa Golf and Country Club but, alas, no golf!

Organiser Matthew Kenny (BCS '79)

Gert Morsch Kenny (BCS '79) and Heather McKinnon (BCS '84). Any guesses as to the subject of their conversation?

KING'S HALL NEWS

KHC Class of '45 Reunion – 50 Years On

The KHC class of '45 had a wonderful reunion in May to mark our 50th anniversary. It was the first class reunion that we had held although many of us have met at KHC functions over the years. Fourteen of us got together in Toronto for a very happy couple of days.

Eva, the instigator of the reunion, drove all the way from San Rafael, California. Shirley and Libby came from North Carolina and Virginia respectively, and the rest from Ontario and Quebec.

Nine of us arrived in Toronto in time to attend the annual KHC luncheon, so ably convened by Mary Cape Usher-Jones (KHC '63) and Margot Graham Heyerhoff (KHC '69). This was a great start to our reunion as we heard Jane Jelowicki describe how the girls fitted into life at BCS today. She did a fine job convincing us that it would be a wonderful place to be.

Later that afternoon, those of us staying in the hotel got together, read letters and looked at pictures sent by former classmates who were unable to be with us, including eight from overseas. Sazz had made copies of her 1945 yearbook and gave us each a copy. It was particularly amusing to read Larry's "Class History" and Belindas's "Class Prophesy". That evening some of us went to see Forever Plaid and enjoyed it. Jean Rutherford Stauble was a most gracious hostess at a dinner party at her house the following evening. There were balloons in KHC colours outside the house so we did not even have to look for the number! Jean's husband, Bill, was there to greet us but we couldn't talk him into staying for dinner! Inside were more balloons, beautiful flowers in KHC colours and a lovely flower arrangement from Anne Collier who at the last minute had been unable to join us. Amy had arrived just in time from Montreal for dinner. She is one of our more distinguished classmates, having received the Order of Canada for her dedicated contribution to the rights of women in Canada and a long-time member and officer of The Order of Canada.

After an excellent dinner, we sang our updated version of "Forty Years On", sent by Belinda and entitled "Fifty Years On". Led by Shirley, we sang this with great enthusiasm and Jean made a recording to send to Belinda.

We missed all those who couldn't join us in Toronto, but we were delighted to have at least heard from almost all the class. Hopefully we will have some mini reunions before the next major one. Let's keep in touch.

—Alice Ross Aird

Compton-Class of '45

Front Row, left to right: Eva Skutezky Keagy, Shirley Erskine Westcott, Martha Morgan McKenna, Sazz Wells Crosby. Middle Row: Rosalie Ballantyne Paterson, Alice Ross Aird, Margaret Anne Forbes Cooper, Roz Duffield Norris, Ruth Needl Eaton. Back Row: Jean Rutherford Stauble, Low Donald Birmingham, Amy Fowler Williams, Anne MacLaren Westphal, Libby Abbott Schoettle.

KING'S HALL NEWS

“Forty Years On” – The Reunion of the Class of '55

Making up for forty years of lost time, the Class of '55 had a wonderful three day reunion at the end of August. Seventeen brave classmates made it for at least some part of the weekend. We missed Diddy Allan Johnson who lives in San Francisco but Kelly Caridi Papu from Barranquilla, Colombia visited by phone from Miami where her husband was in hospital.

It was with more than a little trepidation that class members arrived for an informal dinner chez Rae in Montreal on the Friday evening. For some, it had been the full forty years since they had met. The rising noise level would not have surprised Gilly. If the voices were not “ever soft, gentle and low – an excellent thing in a woman” the excuse was that there was a great deal to catch up on and the group, energetic and dynamic, hardly the old fogies we expected to be when we sang “Forty Years On” in 1955.

The sun shone on the party as we met for lunch the following day with lots of energy left. Sandy led the line of dancers around the terrace to folk music she uses in her dance classes. The luncheon and talk stretched out into the late afternoon until smaller groups drifted off for a walk on the mountain or a visit to the Main and St. Denis.

It was sad that not everyone could stay for the outing to the Eastern Townships on Sunday. The best weather of the year made a perfect day to spend a few minutes in the Compton Church, to poke around the old school with the kind permission of the Maharishi Centre, to revisit the old crocwalk route and climb Windy – by car – thus earning the wonderful lunch that we dawdled over on the terrace at Jean and David's farm.

At Jean Cruickshank's home, Faraway Farm, on Sunday. From the left: Nancy, Tonia, Diana Smith, Jean, Rae, Barbara and Margot.

Considering the distances travelled by some of our classmates, Jo and Margot from England, Nancy from Paris, B.J. and Judy from Vancouver, the distances that separate the rest of the class, scattered in communities from Toronto to Ayer's Cliff will never again seem so great. Firm resolutions have been made to keep in touch and plans initiated for the next reunion – soon.

– Rae Heenan

KHC Classes of '51, '61 & '66

CLASS OF '51

The Class of '51 will be having its 45th reunion on Thursday and Friday, October 23 and 24, 1996. This will coincide with the Vernissage of “Showing Our Colours”, a KHC and BCS art show (see separate article on page 21). On Friday there will be lunch on the town and dinner that night will be at Sue and Boyd Whittall's house.

For more details contact Robin – Fax: (403) 949-2252, Sue – Fax: (514) 937-9363 or Sally – Tel.: (514) 937-8821.

CLASS OF '61

We do realise that this should be the year for our 35th reunion! However, due to circumstance, we have decided to hold it in 1997. You will be hearing from us!

– Sue Khan and Francie Montgomery

CLASS OF '66

We are organising a 30th reunion. If you have not heard from me it is because you are MIA! Please contact me ASAP if you are interested.

Tory Nichols Leach

10951 E. Salero Drive, Scottsdale, Arizona, 85262

Tel.: (602) 488-5336 / Fax: (602) 488-9544

The group of '55, at Rae MacCulloch Heenan's in Montreal
Back row, from the left: Barbara Newell Auston, Wendy Johnston Warren, Helen Tucker Wiegand, Sandy Smith McCrimmon, Judy St. George Waddell, Susan Cuthbertson Scott, Jo Dick Sherwin, Barbara Cope Varney, Mary Lou Mueller Fullerton. Middle row from the left: Sheila Williams Campbell, Rae MacCulloch Heenan, Jean Millward Cruickshank, Diane Smith McMurtry, Margot Watier Pearnmund.
Seated from the left: Di Daniels Chapman and Nancy Millen.

KHC Class of 1965 – Thirty years on and counting

That was the call to everyone from KHC '65 on the weekend of May 12th, 1995. Fifteen members of the class gathered for dinner at the home of Di and Charlie Colby to begin a weekend of celebrating and catching up. The Montrealers in the group (Jeanie Walbridge Blevins, Wendy Leggatt Charlebois, Di Bryant Colby, Sara Peck Colby, Judy Lamplough Dingemans, Margot Grant Kyle and Lee Ellison Moreland) had made the executive decision to forego organised tours and fancy restaurants in favour of home-cooking and time just to relax and be together. It turned out to be a fine idea as classmates came from far and wide – Sydney McDowell from Portland, Maine; Denise Shalom Perez, from Bogota, Colombia, who came with her husband Franklin – he was almost as excited about meeting everybody as Denise was and enthusiastically became the official photographer of the weekend; Judy Stairs from the Gaspé; Joanie Eakin and Pinkle Sturgeon from Toronto; Freedy Miller Mercer from Virginia; and Bev Bryant Bradley from North Hatley. Since Jill Stainforth couldn't be with us, she sent a newsletter from London with pictures of little Sophie.

On Saturday, Wendy and Rod Charlebois hosted a relaxing afternoon and evening BarBQ beside their pool where we continued talking, laughing and getting to know each other again. We even reached a few classmates by phone, Susie Buchan in Michigan, Andy Cowans in New Brunswick and Charlotte Stinson McCain in Arizona, to share some of the fun! Wendy, whatever happened to the phone bill we promised to share!?

Sunday was Mothers' Day, and nine of us gathered at the Hillside Tennis Club for a sunny lunch before saying goodbye and promising to write.

– Sara Peck Colby

Compton-Class of '65 – At the BarBQ at the Charlebois
Front Row, from left to right: Denise Shalom Perez, Sydney McDowell, Joan Eakin, Sara Peck Colby. Middle Row: Lee Ellison Moreland, Pinkle Sturgeon, Judy Stairs, Di Bryant Colby, Margot Grant Kyle
Back Row: Freedy Miller Mercer, Jean Wallbridge Blevins, Bev Bryant Bradley, Judy Lamplough Dingemans, Wendy Leggat Charlebois

Sarah Collin Pervès travelled to Canada from France and is seen here with classmates from 1963, Margot Kyle, Sue McCain Armour and Wendy Leggat Charlebois.

KHC at BCS – A Newsletter for Compton Old Girls

The first edition of this newsletter was sent to all Compton Old Girls, far and wide. Judging from some enthusiastic replies it was well received and many people have written requesting their names be put on a permanent mailing list for future editions. Don't forget to let Jane Jelowicki in The Development Office of BCS know if you would like your name to be added to this list.

KING'S HALL NEWS

The Compton Artists - A Show and Sale

An exciting exhibition of about sixty pieces by twenty three KHC Alumnae artists was enjoyed by many last spring. The paintings were first exhibited at The Stoker Arts Festival, held at the school on April 29 and 30. On May 3, the exhibition moved to the MBSC in Montreal and a mini-show was mounted at the Toronto KHC Luncheon at the Badminton and Racquets Club on May 10. Works worth over $6000 were sold for the benefit of the artists and the school. Proceeds from this event are being divided between the funding of extra art workshops for students and the Keyzer Fund. Plans are already made for another art show this fall. Read about it on the next page.

Sarah Ivory (BCS '79), Jocelyn Shaw (KHC '43) and Hartland Price (BCS '46) congratulate Nikola Reford (BCS '81) on her purchase at the Art Show.

KHC

Montreal Spring Luncheon

Thursday, May 9th, 1996

The Montreal Badminton & Squash Club

For details, contact

Sue Kahn at (416) 485-0144

or

Rae Heenan at (514) 934-0144

Daisy Tea

The Players' Club production of Daisy Pull It Off in November was of special interest to those people who were well acquainted with daily life at an all girls boarding school! The Alumniæ Board most kindly decided that the Benefit Theatre evening on November 25th would be an ideal opportunity for KHC Old Girls to go down to Lennoxville and see the school in action today and so offered to provide transportation to and from Montreal for anyone wanting to see the play. David Stankaitas (BCS '85) was the chauffeur and Sue Khan ('61), Francie Montgomery (KHC '61), Bernice Sharp (KHC '26), Janice Byers Scott (KHC '60) and Jocelyn Shaw (KHC '43) were his passengers. We understand that the entertainment started on the drive down and continued at school where the group were welcomed to an afternoon tea in Gillard House. Here they met up with Josephine Diekson (KHC '46) and her new husband Paddy McG. Stoker (BCS '38) and later during the evening, were joined by Gillian Angus Côté (KHC '62), Lee Moreland (KHC '65), Ann Mitchell (KHC '53), Margot Graham Heyerhoff (KHC '69) and Dorothy Hewson, former music teacher. The evening was a great success, memories were shared, laughter was everywhere and as the photos will tell, everybody got right into the act!

Tea-time in the Compton sitting-room – Standing, from the left: Janice Byers Scott (KHC '60), Francie Bieler Montgomery (KHC '61), Dorothy Hewson, Sue McLaren Khan (KHC '61), Jocelyn Pangman Shaw (KHC '43). Seated, from the left: Josephine Diekson Stoker (KHC '46) and Bernice Sharp (KHC '26).

Spring Luncheon in Toronto

*A Class of '63 mini-reunion at the Toronto luncheon –
From the left: Mary Cape Usher-Jones, Penny Bayley Wood, Janet Burgoine Partridge, Callie Archer Bell and Emily Black.*

Last May 10, close to thirty Old, (yet not so old) Compton Girls attended their now annual Spring Luncheon at the B&R in Toronto. Jane Jelowicki gave an up to date account of school news and Rae Heenan spoke about Compton Committee activities. All present enjoyed cocktails, luncheon and many hilarious door prizes.

– Mary Cape Usher-Jones

KHC TORONTO SPRING LUNCHEON

Wednesday, May 8th, 1996

12:00 NOON

The B&R

*For information, contact
Mary Usher-Jones at (416) 485-0144*

Showing Our Colours / October 24–26, 1996

A Showcase for our Artists

Following on the success of the Compton Artists Show and Sale last May, another show is being planned for the Fall of 1996 in Montreal. This event, which coincides with the Alumni/æ Fall Get-Together, will showcase the works of both BCS and KHC artists, along with other members of the schools' community.

Artists will be invited to submit works for showing with the final selection to be made by a jury. There will be a Gala Vernissage on October 24, at the Canal Complex on St. Amboise at the foot of Lansdowne and the show will continue through the weekend. The committee is hoping to have works in various media including painting, sculpture, print making, ceramics, glass, fibre arts and photography.

If you are interested in receiving more information about this event, or helping with the organisation, please complete the form on the mailing cover of this Bulletin and send it to Jane Jelowicki at the Development Office.

THE COMPTON COMMITTEE meets on a regular basis in Montreal. Minutes of these meetings are always available on request and an account of matters discussed and progress made on Compton affairs can always be found in the Newsletter or the Bulletin. The next meeting is scheduled for March 6, at Sue Khan's house in Montreal, 4318 Montrose, at 10:30 AM.

*Members of the Compton Committee at a recent meeting –
Standing, from the left: Sally Sharwood Drummond (KHC '51),
Rae McCulloch Heenan (KHC '55), Joanne Hewson Rees (KHC '47),
Joan Price Winser (KHC '43), Toni Sharp Newman (KHC '63).
Seated from the left: Sue McLaren Khan (KHC '61), Nancy Layton, Francie Bieler Montgomery (KHC '61).*

ANNUAL GIVING '94-'95

*How important is Annual Giving?
Last year, our supporters gave $267,070 to our school.*

1920 Frances Turner	1935 Ernestine Harrison	Suzanne Stohn	T. Harry McCall	William H. Fuller
1921 Robert Hamilton	Toni Newman	Edythe Taschereau	Vera McCrea	S.B.K. Hutchison
	Campbell L. Stuart	Joan B. Watson	Willa McDougall	Robert G. Jekyll
1922 Mabel Evans	1936 Pam Cook	1942 Norma Carre	Raymond C. Setlakwe	Eve McDougall
Kathleen Ross	Oliver W. Crichton	Elizabeth Currier		Judith Ann Mairs
1924 Hartland de M. Molson	Stanton G.V. Hart	Stockwell Day	1947 William Boswell	Diane Mitchell
Marjorie Young	Betty Petersson	Katharine Grass	H. Anthony Hampshire	Nelson S. Mitchell
1925 Florence Hewat	1937 Graham Egerton	Frederick Sherman Holley	Donald R. Huggett	Willa Mundell
Lucille Pacaud	G.B. Okill Stuart	Mary Iversen	R.H.M. Kindersley	Derek A. Price
Guy Smith	Paul Von Colditz	Frances Jukes	Joanne Rees	Kenneth T. Stevenson
Adelaide St. Dizier	Kathleen Wilson	Elizabeth Kemp	1948 Dione Appleton	Sue Walsh
1926 William Mitchell	Frank Winser	Elizabeth Nixon	J. Michael Ballantyne	1952
1927 Margaret Crean	1938 Garth Beckett	E.T. Patton	Joan Ballantyne	Cynthia Baxter
Mary Glassford	George E. Buch	Ian L. Sewell	Miriam Blair	Barbara Brodeur
1928 Mildred Clare	Elizabeth Davies	David Wanklyn	Martha Chamberlain	Andrea Burgess
1929 Jessie Cleveland	William M. Molson	1943 Robert Christie	Lucinda Flemer	May Copland
Dorothy Davidson	Eric L. Phelps	Hope Dibben	C. Athol Gordon	Louis Hollander
Margaret Gurd	Patrick McG. Stoker	Alan Finley	Robert C. Howard	Andrew S. Johnson
Jonathan Meakins	1939 P.D. Byers	Robert Hampson	Peter H. Jekill	Nancy Keen
Audrey Mitchell	John Churchill-Smith	A.J.K. Hugessen	Lois Kehoe	Susan Paloschi
Sheila H. Ross	Jean Dodd	George W. Huggett	Elizabeth Large	Ronald T. Riley
1930 Frederick Baldwin	Caroline Evans	Francis Morkill	Hartland M. MacDougall	J. Victor Rogers
T.R. (Bill) Kenny	J.M. Fletcher	Marie M.V. Samson	Marjorie MacKeen	Robert G. Ross
William Robb	Mabel Johnson	Jocelyn Shaw	C. Robin Molson	A. Harcourt Carington-Smith
1931 Allison Cassels	James Kenny	H. Douglas Sheppard	Anne Parson	Cleveland Stewart-Patterson
John H.C. McGreevy	Harry Munster	Marie Spetch	Thomas E. Price	1953
Bernice Sharp	J. Kenneth Rapley	Robert A. Stairs	Michael L. Wall	Penelope Baudinet
1932 C.L. Ogden Glass	Audrey Brown	Rahno Taylor	Robert A. Williams	Peter R. Cresswell
Phyllis Matheson	Betty Ussher	Joan Winser	1949 Anthony C. Abbott	Terence W. Grier
Conrad de L. Porteous	1940 Frances Cookson	1944 Peter Aird	Diane Browning	Alison MacNeil
1933 John White Bassett	Patsy Fleming	Sheila Bourke	G. Raymond Courey	Ann Mitchell
Barbara Buchanan	Mimi Garneau	C.J. Brown	David M. Glassford	W. Bradley Mitchell
Margaret Fanjul	Gloria Hall	Kenneth Darling	Peter B. Glassford	M.J. Ogilvie
Thomas H. Montgomery	Charles W. Kenny	Ruth Ferguson	Alan G. Hutchison	Joan Parker
C.F. Payan	Helen Little	John A. Fuller	Cynthia Johnston	E.W.H. Tremain
David Rankin	Joy McLaren	Robert G. McBoyle	Donald Lawrence	1954
Phyllis Raphael	Helen Morrison	John E. Moffat	John Lawrence	Heather Faith
1934 Daniel Doheny	Elizabeth Oland	E.D. Taylor	Joan Mackenzie	John T. Gibb-Carsley
Robert Moncel	Joan Robins	Drusilla van Hengel	Shirley H. Mactavish	Claire Lewis
Kenneth Paton	C.D. Sewell	Fleur Whitworth	Robert A. Pattison	Bartlett H. MacDougall
	Herbert S. Thornhill	1945 Alice Aird	John T. Ross	Janet Matthews
	Harry Trenholme	Margaret-Anne Cooper	Mary Jane Schmidt	Jocelyn McCurdy
	Charles M. Williams	Jean Kazi	Peter S. Winkworth	Beverly Nicol
	1941 Pam Dunn	Eva Keagy	1950 Naomi Abbott	W.S. Pollock
	Diana Ferguson	Mrs. Adrian Levitt	Willa Creighton	James S. Redpath
	Margaret Fleming	Libby Schoettle	Judith M. Devitt	Ian A. Soutar
	Norman Macfarlane	Marie Wardrope	Valerie Heidell	Shirley E. Woods
	Anne Morison	1946 Jane Forbes	Joan Paterson	1955
		A. Scott Fraser	Susan Patten	Barbara J. Auston
		Ronald Hickey	Bette Lou Reade	A. Brian Buchanan
		Mary Landry	John R. Stewart-Smith	John F. Cameron
		Josephine Stoker	1951 Trevor H. Bishop	Sheila Campbell
				Diana Chapman
				John D. Cowans
				Jean Cruickshank
				Philip B. Cumyn
				Peter R. Duffield

This is the equivalent of having about $3 million more in the BCS Foundation. It is simply essential to the future of BCS.

Sheila Gallagher	1960	1965	I. Guy Francis	1975
Rae S. Heenan	Miller H. Ayre	Shirley Brown	J.D. Gillis	Charles E. Goodfellow
Eric H. Molson	Janet E. Baldwin	Wendy Charlebois	Peter Lecoq	Stephen C. Jeffries
Douglas C. Robertson	Virginia Bell	Diana Colby	Peter O. Newell	Neil C. Matheson
Susan Scott	Douglas M. Bruce	Sara Colby	James A. Peers	Evan B. Price
John Q. Teare	Patricia D'Ombrain	Thomas R.M. Davis	John R. Thorpe	Timothy E. Price
1956	Martin P. Gerrard	François de Sainte Marie	George H. Willows	Anthony J. Ross
Edmond G. Eberts	Susan Holmes	Lewis Evans	1970	Kelly Smith
Ian R.M. Henderson	Douglas G. Langley	Paul Goldberg	J. Paul Balharrie	David J. Stenason
Anthony Hungerbuhler	John H. Redpath	Selman Khazzam	James Fraas	1976
Robert E. Juster	Ronald Saykaly	Margot Kyle	R. Arthur Harpur	Kathryn M. Cottingham
Gael Krasny	Bonnie Wace	Duncan L. MacDonald	Deborah Matheson	Frederick Kaneb
Marion MacFarlane	1961	Priscilla (Muffy) Miller	John H. Seveigny	Marion Louise Markham
John M. Roland	Peter F. Ashworth	Lee Moreland	Peter A.W. Thomson	Dacre Stoker
Ian Hamilton-Smith	Gillian Booth	Sarah Collin Perves	1971	1977
Susan Van Alstyne	J. Derek Booth	Ian J. Roland	E. Pierre Beland	Marc André Bibeau
Sue Ward	Peggy Couper	1966	Craig T. Bishop	Diana Boyd-McMahon
Peter G. White	Stephen L. Cushing	Philip J. Anido	Terry Churchill-Smith	D.A. Campbell
Eve Wickwire	Brooke Gibson	Gretchen Bambrick	R. David Jones	Neil P. Cunningham
1957	Brien D. Gillespie	John B. Burbidge	Donat R. Reardon	Sarah Kissick
Robert C. Anderson	Richard M. Hart	Stuart H. Cobbett	Paul J. Setlakwe	Faith H. Paterson
W.S. Arbuckle	Susan Khan	Jennifer Dattels	1972	Cristina Vanderzanden
Janet Barron	T. D'Arcy McGee	Carol Finlayson	Richard M. Acres	1978
Anne Baxter	Donald W.M. Pickard	Peter N. Hanna	Anne Fahrenbach	Evan Ballantyne
Michael R. Bell	Wakeham Pilot	Clinton R. Henderson	Boyd P. Graham	Luc Duval
L.R. Brock	Stephen J. Stafford	Timothy M. Jones	Philip Lawee	Karma Hallward
Lucy Degremont	1962	Alan A. Macnaughton	Jacques Leblanc	Heather Johnston
Ann Gorycki	Gillian Angus Côté	Nicholas Miller	E. Lyle McCoy	Kathleen McGee
Judy Griffin	Michael G. Harris	Susan Pattillo	R.A. Gordon McGee	J. Philip Provencher
Lynn Grivakes	Colin Kenny	Paul A. Rolland	Tobias S. Norwood	1979
Michael G. Huband	Sass Khazzam	Michael Skutezky	Gordon A. Ritchie	C. Suzanne Brownlee
Peter D. Hyndman	Roger D. Thomas	1967	Gilles Y. Roberge	Philippe Clermont
Michael R. McMaster	1963	Robert Charlton	Brian D. Sewell	Richard M. Clinton
Stephen T. Molson	Margot Cowen	T.R. Douglas Harpur	Harvy R. Simkovits	Isabel (Belle) Corrigan
John A. Penhale	Catherine Danforth	Richard D.W. Howson	Mark L. Stephen	Kim Drummond Drouhy
1958	Peter W. Hutchins	Betsy Johnston	Michael Zinay	John A. Hallward
Susan Bassett Klauber	D. Martin S. Jones	Roslyn MacGuire	1973	Jon A. Hantho
Derek H.L. Buntain	Kathy MacCulloch	Robin Montano	Christopher H. Bovaird	Sarah Ivory
Bev Carsley	William Mitchell	Elizabeth Morgan	Wayne O. Ghans	Jennifer Jonas
Anne Dowie	Mary Usher-Jones	Margot Sackett	Omar Ihsley	David Keeley
Bizzy Eberts	1964	George W. Stairs	S. Harlan Kerson	Stephen M. Kouri
Jane Molson	T. Keith Billings	1968	R.J. Langill	James MacDonald
G.E. Anthony Pacaud	David F. Copeland	Francine Cook	Clive M. Law	J.D. McDougall
Honour Robertson	Cynthia Cundill	Andrew Fleming	Ronald Lawee	Timothy S. Moseley
1959	Judi Dunn	Nora Harvey	Ian M. Miller	Mark T. Randle
J. Nicholas Brown	Robin Esmonde-White	Stephanie Kaneb	William A. Scott	Daniel Scheunert
Ann Collombin	Peter B. Nixon	John David Larlee	1980	1980
John W. Collyer	Andrea O'Rourke	Thomas A. Law	Mark W. Emanuel	C. Bruce Davis
Richard M. Freeborough	J. Douglas Patriquin	John H. Phillips	Graham F. Hallward	Ian A.R. Graham
Charles M. Hart	Peter Schmidt	Belinda Shepard	Lee Harrison	Nicholas H. Noyes-Roberts
Edwin Francis Hawken	James K. Stewart	Victoria Thorburn	Stephen W. Mulherin	Timothy E. O'Reilly
John Ross McLernon	C. Robert Taylor	Jane Hamilton	Derek B. Park	Mary Holly Pangman
Peter H.C. Mitchell	D. Ian B. Taylor	1969	J.R. Scott Pritchard	Marc Quinet
Rodney H. Smith	D. Keith Wilson	Alan Black	Peter J. Rich	Andrew Ross
G.R. (Bob) Tinker		Terence D. Bovaird	Julia J. Wallace	Stephen H. Scheunert
		George Burbidge		Michael A. St. Onge
		Ralph W. Carmichael

ANNUAL GIVING '94-'95

1981	Philippe Boivin Gregory J. Boyd Sandra Cандow Marc Coulombe Colin L. Drummond Sarah Flaherty Annabel Hallward Donald A. McInnes Heather A. Pilmer Sara J. Provencher M. Carlotta Stoker Di Fiore Catherine J. Sutherland J.H. Martin Tremblay Horacio J. Velutini Dorothy C Williams	Maureen Waterston Jennifer Winsor 1984 Patricia Ascough John C. Dunn Brett Halna Du Fretay Scott Hyndman Kurt Johnson Edward Journeaux Dumas Maugile Sherrill E. McMaster-Ares Bruce Robbins Joni Scheib Judi Webster-Greene	Caroline Baudinet Fraser Bertram Ariana Bradford Ann Case Carl Descoteaux Kenneth M. Evans Diana McMaster 1988 Geoffrey Belisle Thane Calder Timon Deichmann Pierre Gaudreau Alexandra Johnston Jason Macioge Alberto Rivera Robin Roots	Philip Côté Sally Goodwin Ian Gray-Donald Heidi Kaulbach Isabel Kruger Timothy Mason Marc-David Munk Nicholas Scheib Amelia Troubridge 1992 Laura Booth Jessica Bruce Joshua Cundill Nicolas Ellis Ilena Jelowicki Jenifer Johnston James McKellar Montgomery Price Roderick Quinlan Thomas Rees Sophie Vezina	Gabriella Gellrich Ian Gurekian Jameson Har Amanda Jelowicki Philippe Kantardjieff Robin Mitchell Philip Price François-Charles Sirois Katherine Stuart Mark Tame Mathieu Veillette Nils Winkler 1994 J.B. (Tolly) Bradford Oliver Drake Pascal Gellrich Katherine Gray Krystyna Kouri Desiree Parris Thomas Peacock Sebastian Schwarz Christiaan Winkel Alex Hackett
1982	Heather Hantho-Cavadias Mark Johnson Stephanie Lynne Kouri Marc Le Pottier Brian Morrison	Derek Edwards Robert Fraser Alain Gregoire Kimberly J. Pawley Bruno Roy Alison Smerchinski David Stankaitis	1989 Jeffrey Bishop	1990 Dominic Bradford Elizabeth Gallery Sharon Johnston
1983	Pamela Crossen Nancy Doddridge Paul Fritz-Nemeth John Gilmour Jane Hawketts Andrew McCrudden Geoffrey Reford	Nathalie Bissonnette Kevin J. Brown Deborah Johnston Jennifer C. Law Nathalie Leblond David Retzleff	Dana MacKimmie David McDougall Jens Schaller Stephanie Smith Irene Wong	1993 Richard Ash Marcia Collins Dennis Colpitts Adrian Cox Iain Detchon Sarah Eddy Charlton Farmer

UPCOMING EVENTS AT BCS

♦ WINTER CARNIVAL
March 1–4, 1996

♦ SPRING FASHION SHOW
May 3, 1996

♦ FORM VII GRADUATION
May 25, 1996

♦ FORM VI GRADUATION AND SCHOOL CLOSING
June 21, 1996

♦ ROMEO AND/ET JULIETTE
*Opening Night
– April 22 at BCS
– April 27 in Montreal*

♦ CADET INSPECTION
May 24, 1996

♦ FOUNDERS' DAY WEEKEND
May 31–June 1, 1996

♦ SUMMER SCHOOL
June 30–July 27, 1996

Non-alum giving '94-'95

S.F. Abbott	Valerie Courchesne	Mr. & Mrs. Hunneysett	Margaret Mitchell	E.P. Rees
George B. Allan	David A.G. Cruickshank	Karl W. Hunting	Michael Moss	Garry & Marjorie Retzleff
Autobus M. Auger Inc.	Vincent Dangoisse	Malcolm Hurrel	National Trust Company	Susan Riddell
Antonio Ayache	Dascon Investments Ltd.	Lois M. Hutchison	Susan Ness	Robert & Deanna Ross
Andre Ayotte	Dennis Delaney	Randy Jackson	Brenda T. Norris	Roger J. Sherratt
Kathryn Barlow	DJS Holdings	Farouk Jammohamed	David Notman	Ernest Skutezky
BCS Association	Mark G. Drake	Elisabeth Johnson	Ondaatje Foundation	Kathy Stafford
BCS Parents Committee	Anne Drake	David L. Johnston	Ron Owen	Edmund Staunton
Beaver Foods Limited	Cynthia Drew	Sharon Johnston	Ursula Pace	Cheryl Stroud
Alex Becks	Dromac Inc.	N.P. Kane	Marissa Pace	Barbara Stuart
Marie Claude Bergevin	Dunn-Parizeau Inc.	Spiridon Kantardjieff	Pap./Imp. Lennoxville	Toru Sugiyama
William Black	Aladin Fansa	Naoki Kawata	J.G. Patriquin	Carol Taylor
Denis Blanchet	Tony Fargnoli	Josephine Hope Kent	Charles Peacock	The Tecolote Foundation
Jean Bouchard	Harry Gattiker	Peter Koll	Patricia Peacock	Anne Thaler
Meriel Bradford	Peter Gellrich	Mahmoud Kouatly	Marjan Pecinovic	The Hay Foundation
Luella Brady	Goldman Children Trust	Robert P. Kouri	Francisco Pinero	Peter Trutschmann
Robert Calder	F. Ronald Graham	Normand Lecours	Michel Poirier	Ville de Lennoxville
Aloise Cameron	Rosario Green	Claude Lemoine	Autobus Pouliot	Chen-Chang Wang
Arthur Campbell	Pierre & Helen Greffard	Richard & Zillah Loney	Tom Pound	J. Albert Wayland
Canada Trust	Jacques Gregoire	Yean-Jye Lu	John Quigley	Patterson Webster
Tony Carpenter	Robert & Louise Hamelin	M.J.B. Litho Inc.	R.H. Webster Foundation	Mr. Yip
J.E. Cassar	Wijanto Hanitijo	Kunio Maeno	Samuel J. Raff	Aileen Young
Candice Cassils	Olga Hanna	Ambrose Mak	Marc Ranger	Louisa Yu
Raymond Chagnon	Jacques Hardy	Peter Marosi	Roberta Redpath	Anonymous
Cooper Family Foundation	Yvonne Heenan	Marsh & McLennan	Redpath Gallery
Michael Cooper	Gino Hong	Andrew Mason	Brenda Reed

5th Annual BCS Alumni/æ Golf Tournament

May 31st, 1996

Place: Owl's Head Golf Club, Mansonville, Québec

Tee Offs: 12:00 noon - 2:00 PM

We are limited to sixty players

Cost: $75

*Includes Golf, Dinner and Prizes
($30 Dinner only)*

Organise your own foursome or get your entry in to us.

You don't have to be a golfer to come to the dinner.

The more the merrier.

For more information, contact:

Cliff Goodwin at (819) 566-0227 ext. 204

ANNUAL GIVING '95-'96

Annual Giving '95-'96 has so far been supported by these alumni/æ...

1921 Robert Hamilton	Bruce R. McPherson Patrick McG. Stoker	1944 Class Agent — John A. Fuller	Joan Paterson Susan Patten Deirdre Stevenson	1956 Edmond Eberts Robert E. Juster Marion MacFarlane Susan Van Alstyne Sue Ward Peter G. White
1922 Mabel Evans Kathleen Ross	1939 Audrey Brown P.D. Byers James Kenny Harry Munster J. Kenneth Rapley	Peter Aird Sheila Bourke Ruth Ferguson John A. Fuller Fleur Whitworth	1951 Class Agents KHC — Sally Drummond — Sue Whittal	1957 Class Agent – John Penhale Robert C. Anderson Michael R. Bell Lucy Degremont Ann Gorycki Judy Griffin Lynn Grivakes Suzanne Hall Peter D. Hyndman Michael R. McMaster Stephen T. Molson John A. Penhale F.M. Wanklyn
1924 Hartland de M. Molson
1925 Florence Hewat Donald Mackay Lucille Pacaud Guy Smith	1940 Francis Evans Patsy Fleming Charles W. Kenny Helen Little Joy MacLaren Elizabeth Oland Joan Robins C.D. Sewell Herbert S. Thornhill Harry Trenholme Charles M. Williams	Alice Aird Margaret-Anne Cooper Jean Kazi Robert W. Stevenson	Trevor H. Bishop Sally Drummond William H. Fuller Robert G. Jekyll Judith Ann Mairs Nelson S. Mitchell John T.I. Porteous Derek A. Price
1926 William Mitchell		1945	1952 Cynthia Baxter Robin W. Berlyn Barbara Brodeur Andrea Burgess May Copland Louis Hollander John R. Lundon Susan Paloschi J. Victor Rogers Robert G. Ross Arthur H.C. Smith
1929 Jessie Cleveland Dorothy Davidson Audrey Mitchell				1958 Susan Bassett Klauber Brenda Currie John (Jake) Eberts Elizabeth Leslie Jane Molson Honour Robertson
1930 Frederick Baldwin T.R. (Bill) Kenny William Robb	1941 Class Agent KHC — Suzie Stohn	Pam Dunn Diana Ferguson Anne Morison Suzanne Stohn Edythe Taschereau Joan B. Watson	1946 Jane Forbes A. Scott Fraser Ronald Hickey T. Harry McCall Josephine Stoker
1931 Allison Cassels John H.C. McGreevy Dorothy Stevenson			1947 William Boswell H. Anthony Hampson Donald R. Huggett Joanne Rees
1932 C.L. Ogden Glass Phyllis Matheson	1942 Class Agent — David Wanklyn	Joan Ballantyne Miriam Blair Martha Chamberlain C. Athol Gordon Peter H. Jekill Elizabeth Large Hartland M. MacDougall Ian L. McCulloch C. Robin Molson Anne Parson Thomas E. Price Michael L. Wall	1948 Penelope Baudinet Peter R. Cresswell Terence W. Grier W. Bradley Mitchell Ann Mitchell Joan Parker W.H. Tremain
1933 Barbara Buchanan Thomas H. Montgomery C.F. Payan David Rankin			1953 Class Agent – Brad Mitchell
1934 Daniel Doheny Robert Moncel Kenneth Paton				1959 Class Agents — Richard Freeborough & Peter Mitchell
1935 Ernestine Harrison Toni Newman				John W. Collyer Richard M. Freeborough Charles M. Hart Peter H.C. Mitchell Steven F. Owen R. (Bob) Tinker John A. Wanklyn
1936 Pam Cook Oliver W. Crichton Betty Petersson	1943 Class Agent KHC — Jocelyn Shaw	1949 Class Agent KHC — Joan MacKenzie	1954 Class Agent — Bart MacDougall
1937 Thomas W. Deachman Graham Egerton G.B. Okill Stuart Frank Wincer	Class Agent BCS — Robert Stairs	Class Agent BCS — Raymond Courey		1960 Class Agents — Miller Ayre , John Redpath & Ron Saykaly
1938 Class Agent – Paddy Stoker Garth Beckett Elizabeth Davies John W. Howe		Paul Almond G. Raymond Courey David M. Glassford Peter B. Glassford Donald Lawrence	1955 Class Agent — John Cameron	Miller H. Ayre Roger A. Bell Douglas M. Bruce Martin P. Gerrard John H. Redpath Bonnie Wace
		John Lawrence Ernest D. Le Messurier John and Rosemary Ross
		1950 Class Agents KHC — Willa Creighton & Joan Paterson		1961 Class Agent — Colin Coolican
		Valerie Heidell		Judith Archer Peter F. Ashworth M. Fraser Blakely J. Derek Booth

Peggy Couper	1968	1975	& Linda Rodeck	David Trower
Stephen L. Cushing	Francine Cook	Class Agents – Tim McGee & Tim Price	Sandra Candon	Paul Wu
Brien D. Gillespie	Andrew Fleming	Gwen M.E. Davidson	Christopher J. Cowans	1989
Richard M. Hart	Neil Herring	Carrie McDougall	William R. Cunningham	Class Agent – Kathryn McCrory
Anthony Jessop	Thomas A. Law	Timothy E. Price	Sylvie Duval	Jeffrey Bishop
David M. McEntyre	John H. Phillips	1976	Annabel Hallward	Isabelle Bombardier
T. D'Arcy McGee	Belinda Shepard	Class Agent – Nick Lomasney	Jeremy L. Jonas	1990
Donald W.M. Pickard		David G. Creighton	Nikola M. Reford	Class Agent – Marc Bruneau
1962		R. Wayne Guy	M. Carlotta Stoker Di Fiore	Andrea Bartnikas
Gillian Angus Côté	Class Agents – Peter Lecoq, Ross Newman & Trevor Skutezky	I. Derek Sewell	J.H. Martin Tremblay	Dominic Bradford
Colin Kenny	Ralph W. Carmichael	1977	1982	Charles Goodwin
D. Robert MacDonald	Margot Heyerhoff	Class Agents – Neil Cunningham & Sarah Kissick	Class Agent – Mark Johnson	Sara Lydiatt
1963	James A. Peers	Marc André Bibeau	Toner Brodeur	Stephanie Smith
Catherine Danforth	Trevor J. Skutezky	Neil P. Cunningham	1983	1991
Kathy MacCulloch	John Thorpe	Annette Goodro	Class Agents – Andrew Setlakwe & Jennifer Winsor	Class Agents – Amy Donnachie & Sally Goodwin
William Mitchell	George H. Willows	Sarah Kissick	Pamela Crossen	Trevor Collins
Mary Usher-Jones		G. Scott Muddiman	John Gilmour	Philip Côté
1964	1970	Faith H. Paterson	Geoffrey Reford	Christina Gladisch
T. Keith Billings	Class Agents – Tim Bovaird & James Fraas	1978	Maureen Waterston	Sally Goodwin
Judi Dunn	Peter A.W. Thomson	Class Agents – Craig Fields & Mike Weir	1984	Ian Gray-Donald
Katherine McLeod		Richard Coulombe	Class Agents – John Dunn & Kurt Johnson	Heidi Kaulbach
Peter B. Nixon	1971	Craig Fields	Patricia Ascough	Timothy Mason
Charlotte Pastore	Class Agent – David Jones	Karma Hallward	Theadora Brinckman-Smith	Erin Moran
J. Douglas Patriquin	Terry Churchill-Smith	Kathleen McGee	Owen Hines	Nicholas Scheib
D. Keith Wilson	Paul J. Setlakwe	Michael Weir	1992	1993
1965	1972	1979	Class Agents – John Hallward, Doug Mitchell & Tim Moseley	Class Agent – Monty Price
Class Agent – Julian Wise	Class Agent – Crick Glass	Richard Coulombe	Genevieve Bedard
Shirley Brown	John M. Apostolides	Craig Fields	Laura Booth
Wendy Charlebois	Andrew T. Atkinson	Karma Hallward	Ilena Jelowicki
Sara Colby	Boyd P. Graham	Kathleen McGee	Monty Price
François de Sainte Marie	C. Grant Hulme	Michael Weir	Franklin Raff
Victor M. Drury	Martin D. Lalonde	1980	1985
Lewis Evans	Philip Lawee	Class Agents – John Hallward, Doug Mitchell & Tim Moseley	Class Agent – David Stankaitis
Margot Kyle	Jacques Leblanc	Timothy T. Ballantyne	Derek Edwards
Lee Moreland	Robert A.G. McGee	Philippe Clermont	Osnat Shemesh
M. John Vipond	Tobias S. Norwood	John A. Hallward	1986
1966	Gordon A. Ritchie	Jennifer Jonas	Nathalie Bissonnette
Philip J. Anido	Gilles Y. Roberge	Matthew Kenny	David Retzleff
John B. Burbidge	1973	Stephen M. Kouri	1987
Stuart H. Cobbett	Class Agent – Clive Law	James MacDonald	Class Agent – Catherine Vennat
Carol Finlayson	Christopher H. Bovaird	Cynthia A. McCall	Ariana Bradford
Peter N. Hanna	Wayne O. Ghans	Timothy S. Moseley	Ann Case
Clinton R. Henderson	Omar Ilsley	Mark T. Randle	Diana McMaster
Timothy M. Jones	Robert J. Langill	Daniel Scheunert	1988
Alan A. Macnaughton	Ian M. Miller	1980	Class Agents – Mike Laframboise & Tim O'Reilly
Kathleen P. McEntyre	Phyllis Sise	Class Agents – Graham Hallward & Scott Pritchard	Class Agents – Timon Deichmann & Alexandra Johnston
Paul A. Rolland		Lee Harrison	Thomas Goodwin
Michael Skutezky	1974	Janice Murray	Helen Hawketts
1967	Class Agents – Tim Bradley, Doug Harpur & Richard Howson	Derek B. Park	Jason Macioge
C. Agents – Tim Bradley, Doug Harpur & Richard Howson		J.R. Scott Pritchard	Alberto Rivera
Jill Cobbett		Peter J. Rich	James Thomas	1995
T.R. Douglas Harpur		1981	Class Agents – Chris Cowans, Carlotta Stoker Di Fiore, Annabel Hallward	Chor-Chiat Goh
Richard D.W. Howson		Class Agents – Graham Hallward & Scott Pritchard	Jennifer Mason
Roslyn MacGuire			Dina Nelson

ANNUAL GIVING '95-'96

Annual Giving '95-'96 has so far been supported by these parents and friends...

S.F. Abbott	Mark & Anne Drake	Yuko Kato	Daniel Myhal	Carol Taylor
Hilary S. Abbott	Dromac Inc.	Jeanne Kibbee	National Trust Company	The Tecolote Foundation
George B. Allan	Thomas C. Drucker	Yujiro Kita	B.J. Olivella	The Hay Foundation
Maurice André	Peter Dunn	Vladimir Kolerov	Kunio Osada	Peter Trutschmann
Esther Bassett	Michael W. Dunn	Kenneth Kouri	J.G. Patriquin	Michel Vachon
Mr. Bassompierre	Eric T. Webster Foundation	Michel Lahaie	K. Qattan	Amparo Vasquez
Deadra Bastarache	Gration Fernando	Patrick Lawe	R.H. Webster Foundation	Axel Vervoordt
BCS Parents Committee	Michel Garon	Normand Lecours	Samuel J. Raff	Dorothy Wallace
Alex Becks	Cam Gentile	Claude Lemoine	Garry & Marjorie Retzleff	Patterson Webster
Frances Best	J.C. Giroux	Ann Levitt	Susan Riddell	Janice Weir
Simone Bourgault	Lynn Goth	Richard & Zillah Loney	Joanne Sack	Paul Winnell
J.E. Cassar	Louise Granofsky Shapiro	Nancy MacDonnell	M. Scholz	Elizabeth Wirth
Raymond Chagnon	Pierre & Helen Greffard	Kunio Maeno	Ernest Skutezky	Peter Witte
Michael Cooper	H.W. Hingston	Ambrose Mak	Gilberto Solis	J. Chiu Shun Yee
Robert G. Cross	Ting Yat Ho	Luc Marcoux	Yu-Pen Su Chen	Louisa Yu
David A.G. Cruickshank	Gino Hong	Antoine Meo	Young Keun Suh	Anonymous
DJS Holdings	Lois M. Hutchison	Renato Mona	Shi Hung Tai
Tim & Dinah Doherty	Spiridon Kantardjieff	Ed & Danette Mortimer	Katsukuni Tanaka

Annual Giving '95-'96 has so far been supported by these staff members...

Gordon Allan	Nicole Brass	Cathy Evans	Nancy Layton	Kate Ryffranck
Andrea Bartnikas	Peter Brass	Lewis Evans	Jacques Leblanc	Louise St. Jacques
Shirley Bassett	Shirley Brown	Cliff Goodwin	Maggie Leblanc	Marc St. Jacques
Andrew Blair	Illoma Carr	Pat Goodwin	Daphne Nelson	David Turner
Barbara Blair	Maryse Forest	Elisabeth Johnson	Charles Peacock
Jean-Claude Boudreau	Cynthia Drew	Peter Kandalaf	Patricia Peacock

THE BCS PLAYERS' CLUB

presents

Romeo and/et Juliette

Adaptation bilingue et/and directed by Lewis Evans et/and Maryse Forest

8:00 PM

Monday–Thursday, April 22–25, 1996
in the R. Lewis Evans Memorial Theatre at BCS

A reception and benefit performance of this play will be held in Moyse Hall at McGill University on Saturday, April 27, 1996, starting at 6:30 PM. Tickets for this evening are $75.

For further information, call Kate at (819) 566-0227 Ext. 203 or in Montreal, Carlotta Stoker di Fiore at (514) 487-6618.

CLASS NEWS

MILESTONES

Deaths

Cathy Lawson Boyes (KHC '65)

Cathy died at the end of July in a car accident. She left behind her thirteen-year-old daughter, Ali, as well as assorted animals which were part of her family home in Shanty Bay, Ontario.

Five of us from the Class of KHC '65, joined family and friends to honour Cathy at a memorial service in Ottawa last August. Margot Grant Kyle spoke of the times we had had together at King's Hall. "Cathy's boundless energy and enthusiasm – her wonderful sense of humour and great hearty laugh remain fixed in memory for all of us."

– Sara Peck Colby

Luella Brady, matron of BCS from 1961 to 1987, on May 31, 1995.

Donna Burrows Campbell, on February 26, 1995 after a courageous battle with cancer. Beloved wife of former teacher Doug Campbell and loving mother of Tim and Robyn.

Priscilla Wanklyn Campbell (KHC '49), at her residence in Ottawa, on January 18, 1996.

Victoria "Tori" Anne Cowans (BCS '83) in December 1995.

Robert B. Christie (BCS '43) on March 22nd, 1995.

Mary Rowell Jackman (KHC '21).

Joseph W. (Hap) Moreland (BCS '39) on August 5, 1994.

Gretchen Parrock (KHC '15) on October 1st, 1995.

G. Kenneth Parke (BCS '12) on January 10th, 1995 at home in Akron, Ohio.

Tori Cowans

On Saturday, January 13, there was a very special service held in St. Martin's Chapel. It was a memorial service to celebrate the life of Tori Cowans (BCS '82) who died in early December, 1995, after a lengthy illness.

The centre section of the chapel was filled with family and friends – many of whom were at BCS with Tori or with her brother, Chris (BCS '81).

The service was conducted by both BCS Chaplain, Trish Peacock, and former teacher and houseparent, Ron Owen. The eulogy was shared between Tori's father, John (BCS '54) and Chris. In his part of the address, John remembered that during his years as Headmaster ('72-'82) he would tell our students to take special note of the window on their way down the stairs. That window pictured St. Martin slicing his cloak in two in order that a beggar might be clothed. This service to others symbolised something that we at BCS strive to instill in our students; this is typical of the way Tori had led her life – as a nurse, as a sister, as a daughter, as a wife. How fitting it was, he said, that this memorial be held in our school chapel – where Tori was baptised in 1965 and confirmed in 1977.

In his part of the address, Chris thanked everyone for the caring support that had been shown his family, not simply by the cards, letters and phone calls they had received, but also by everyone who had come to Lennoxville from near and far for the service.

A time like this is a time for family. BCS was honoured that Tori's family reached out to include their school.

James Robert Simms (BCS '29), former Head Prefect, on January 8th, 1996, in Grandmère, Québec. Frank Simms, BCS '63, said that his father had very fond memories of his years at BCS and was immensely proud that his son as well as his granddaughter, Kedrin (BCS '94), graduated from the school.

Linda Wilson Tremble (KHC '55) in June, 1995

Campbell L. Stuart (BCS '35), brother of G.B. Okill Stuart (BCS '37), in his home in North Saanich, BC, on July 16th, 1996. He had recently returned from the VE day celebrations with other old BCS friends. (See class note on page 30.)

Brendan Trower, BCS Art teacher from 1975, on April 27th, 1995

Marriages

Josephine Lantier (KHC '46) to Patrick McG. Stoker (BCS '38).

Joni Scheib (BCS '84) to Andy Yonelinas on December 19th, 1995 in Hamilton. (See class note page 34.)

Louise Bruneau (BCS '81) to Ed Vasich in June, 1994. (See class note on page 33.)

Births

Marion Mitchell Markham (BCS '76) happily announces the birth of Jennifer Louise on April 21st, 1994, a sister for brother David. (See class note on page 33.)

Valerie and Charles Simpkin (BCS '72) proudly announce the birth of their son, Brian Christopher, on 7 February, 1995. A brother for Michael.

John R. Way (BCS '80) and wife Irene are happy to announce the birth of Amanda Sara, on November 27, 1994. (See class note on page 33.)

Joni Scheib (BCS '84) and husband, Andy Yonelinas.

CLASS NEWS

CLASS NOTES

(Ed. Note – Since we did not publish a Bulletin in September, not only do we have more Class Notes than usual but some of them may appear out of date. Please forgive any misunderstandings.)

1927 KHC

Bernice Beaumont Sharp writes:

I go to painting classes every week and also I go line-dancing. (Ed. Note: It must have been the good training at KHC where Bernice won the cup for ballet dancing.) My husband was a Director of the school and my two sons were students, Arnold (BCS '56) and Robin (BCS '58).

1929

Dr. Jonathan F. Meakins writes:

I have not been in practice for many years but I continue to work part-time as the Registrar (medical records) at the Royal Victoria Hospital in Montreal. My son, J.L. Meakins (BCS '59), is now Surgeon-In-Chief at the RVH and that makes three generations at the hospital, starting with my father who was Physician-in-Chief from 1924–1947. I went on staff in 1939, but took time out from 1940–1946 to serve with the RCAF in WWII.

1930

Lt. Col. Frederick Baldwin reminisces:

I attended BCS from 1927–1930, becoming a prefect in my last year. I was on first teams for football and basketball. I served overseas with the 27th Canadian Armoured Regiment and landed on D-Day at Bernieres-Sur-Mer. I have three children, all married, and four grandchildren. Due to ill-health I have been in the Sherbrooke Hospital in recent months.

1936 KHC

Pamela Merrill Cook writes:

I am still painting under the name Merrill and I am exhibiting in juried shows. My husband and I moved from the farm in Sooke and now have a small house and studio a few blocks from the Oak Bay waterfront in Victoria. I look forward to old friends calling!

1937

Okill Stuart wrote to let us know that four BCS Old Boys participated in the 50th Anniversary ceremonies of VE Day in Apeldoorn, Holland and enclosed these photos.

Campbell Stuart (BCS '35)

Left to right: Joe Nixon (BCS '37), Okill Stuart (BCS '41) and George Buch (BCS '38).

1940

Charles M. Williams was made Chevalier de L'Ordre Nationale de La République Française.

1945 KHC

Eva Marie Skutezky Keagy writes:

My husband, Robert, died in June '92 of leukaemia. I continue to work part-time as a R.N. case manager and rehabilitation nurse. My teddy bear collection, stuffed, crystal, pewter and Delft now numbers more than two hundred. I will be coming home to Montreal in May and then on to Toronto for the KHC 50th reunion. I'm really looking forward to that! (See Compton pages for a report on that reunion.)

Amy (Fowler) Williams, Past President of the Montreal Council of Women and of the National Council of Women of Canada, was made a member of the Order of Canada in 1985 for her efforts to improve the situation of women in pension and taxation systems.

A Ballantyne gathering in Tadoussac:

Back left is Evan's wife, Chrystie, holding their 3-month old daughter, Lauren; beside them, Evan (BCS '78), now VP and CFO of A.C. Neilson Canada – living in Markham, ON. In front of them, Belle Ballantyne Corrigan (BCS '79) with her two, Timothy at 2 months and Megan at 2 years; Belle lives in Juno Beach, Fla., and is a buyer for Saks in Palm Beach Gardens. Upstage centre sits C.C. "Tim" Ballantyne (BCS '48), now living in White Plains, NY, and to his left, Timothy (BCS '79) with his two, David at 2 years and Heather at 3. In front of everyone is Evan and Chrystie's William (3) trying on his rubber boots.

And in the insert, back from her tennis match, is Joan Williams Ballantyne (KHC '48), wife, mother and grandmother, with the youngest, Timothy.

1950 KHC

Judith M. Devitt writes:

I spent two months in Paris from mid December until mid-February. My third grandchild, Zachary, arrived on January 7th, 1995. I am now in Florida and will have lunch with Sally Drummond and Skippy Robertson and others in March.

Valerie Meyer Heidell writes:

My fifth grandchild is due in May. I am still tap-dancing, singing with the Song Pipers Musical Therapy group (for thirty years now!) and am working in the office for a real estate company. Our tap-dancing class puts on a small show for the American Federation of Women's Clubs to demonstrate that one can still have fun, despite advancing years!

Susan Harvey Patten writes:

I am still living in Newfoundland. I am treasurer of the World Association of Girl Guides and Girl Scouts, Chairman of the A. Harvey Group of Companies and a member of the Literacy Development Council.

1950

John Stewart-Smith writes:

My wife, Catherine, and I are now in our tenth year of opening our home as a Wolsey Lodge. Henry VIII's Lord Chancellor, bon viveur Cardinal Wolsey, toured the realm expecting to receive generous hospitality at any suitable country house. Our home, Yews Farm, is one of now two hundred and thirty homes in Britain where visiting alumni/æ would be especially welcome.

1955 KHC

Sheila Grier Gallagher writes:

I am still happy to be excelling in my real estate business in Toronto with my company, Chestnut Park Real Estate Ltd. After more than twenty-five years in the business I am still earning top performance awards and I now employ a full-time agent/associate for computer, marketing and administrative support. Leisure times are often spent with my fourteen year old granddaughter or windsurfing at my cottage on Stony Lake, north of Toronto.

1956 KHC

Eve Smith Wickwire writes:

I am really hoping that there will be a 40th reunion for the KHC class of '56. In the meantime here is some news of the McInnes/Wickwire clan - Wendy Wickwire Kinley (BCS '79) is a flight attendant with Canadian. She is married to Dr. Eddy Kinley and they have two daughters Samantha (3) and Madeline (8 months). Donald McInnes (BCS '81) is living and working in Vancouver (see sep. class note). Jannie McInnes (BCS '84) spent last year in Los Angeles working for the Fox director Hart Bockner. He is now back in Toronto free-lancing. Ted McInnes (BCS '88) graduated from McGill and received a Canada Council grant to help him complete his first book. He travelled in South Africa last Fall.

1957 KHC

Ann Iddon Gorycki writes:

I work as a business manager at a large Unitarian church. My son Christopher is married with a six-month old daughter and my daughter Jessica is engaged. Chris works as Admissions Director at a private school in Massachusetts and Jessica is a teacher in North Carolina. I am in touch with Liz Echols Edmonson, Bambi Reeves, Heather Morris and Frances Harley.

1957

Michael R. Bell is now living in the Netherlands where he has been Ambassador for Canada since 1993.

1958 KHC

Elizabeth Angus Eberts writes:

I have two children and two grandchildren aged three and six months and this summer my youngest daughter was married.

1958

Bob Anderson writes:

I am President of my company Reynolds and Anderson, General Insurance Brokers, and have been for the past twenty years here in Westmount, Québec.

1959

John N. Baird writes:

I have left California for the great state of Texas where I am pleased to report that everything is bigger and better!

1963

Martin Jones writes:

As soon as I completed my science degree at Concordia in 1967, I headed out to Australia. I ended up in marine scientific research at the Australian Institute of Marine Science here. One of the projects I was involved with on jellyfish featured in the August 1994 issue of National Geographic. Since 1986 I have been working for the Great Barrier Reef Marine Park Authority. They operate a large tropical marine aquarium here that I am fortunate to be Director of. I have a wife, Maureen, and two children, Catherine, 12 and Michael, 7. This part of the world seems to attract many Canadians and they are well represented in the educational facilities, scientific research institutions and business and government. Even the Governor of Queensland is a former Canadian. At least the grocery store recognises our presence since maple syrup is widely available! This is a pretty good part of the world for a holiday, hope to see some of you here some time!

1965 KHC

Double congratulations are in order for Bev Bryant Bradley and twin Diana Bryant Colby (pictured below). After raising families, the pair returned to study at McGill and by coincidence concluded their degrees at the same time. Diana received a master's in Educational and Psychology Counselling and Bev a Master's in Social Work.

1966 KHC

Kathleen Mackay moved from Los Angeles to the Cambridge, Mass. area in 1991. She now lives ten minutes from Harvard University, her alma mater, and is active in university life. She is consultant to PBS stations across the country, and travels all over the US and to Europe for her business, raising financing for PBS documentaries, films and series. Kathleen has published three books and is working on her fourth, a novel.

CLASS NEWS

1966

Robin Montano writes:

I am kept busy here in Trinidad with a commercial law practice. I have six kids, three dogs, two cats, not to mention the sunshine. I am retired from politics (for the time being) and would love to hear from old friends, especially Tim Jones, if a message could be got to him. I have seen Peter and Paul Goldberg recently and they are both doing well. Peter puts satellites up in the sky and Paul buys and sells oil for Exxon. Finally, Trindad, is benefiting from massive foreign investment in the energy sector, mainly from the Americans and British. Where are the Canadians?!

1967 KHC

Nancy Frank writes:

Chris (BCS '66) and I moved to the country, twenty minutes from Ottawa. Our oldest child, Graham is studying at the University of Ottawa and our youngest, Liz, is at (God forbid!) Ashbury.

1968 KHC

Francine Cook writes:

Our youngest son, Burke, will graduate from Trinity Pawling School with high honours, and will be attending the University of Arizona in the fall. We are very proud of him and wish him luck.

Jane Hamilton writes:

I am at the end of an Honours BA in English and Japanese Studies at McMaster University in Hamilton and I am job-hunting in the Toronto area. I have three kids, aged eighteen, twelve and eleven, they are all doing great and I am still in touch with several classmates.

Nora Cook Harvey writes:

My husband and I own and operate a dairy farm comprised of over one hundred registered Jersey cattle. I also work as a nurse at the Vanderbilt University Medical Center in Nashville. I work in the ER and we are a Level I trauma center so it is very busy and stimulating. Both my children are at St. Andrew's Sewanll School; my daughter, Hannah, graduates in May and has been accepted to Cornell University. We are very excited for her. My son, Samuel, is in 9th grade.

1972

Richard Acres writes:

I have been living in California since 1977. I returned to Canada to work for Mitel for three years in the early 80s before transferring back to California as General Manager of US Operations for one of their subsidiary companies. I formed several companies in 1985 which I now own and operate. In 1993 I moved my family to Denver and have been commuting between Orange County and Denver ever since. Currently I am in the process of putting my telephone system sales and service company up for sale so that I can focus on living in Colorado and plan on moving my manufacturing business to Denver. I wish I lived a little closer so that I could get to a few of your reunions! Good luck with your fund raising.

John Apostolides writes:

Life goes on! I am fortunate to work for the Bank of Montreal who have a flex-time and flex-place policy. Two days a week I work at home and can spend time with my two sons when the school bus arrives. To the Class of '72 – if you are in the Toronto area, please call!

Anne Brown Fahrenbach writes:

All is well in Chicago. Life is busy raising two girls, one who is just entering her teens! I think it's time to call a meeting of the "Executive Club". I would love to hear from the KHC/BCS '72 group, especially if you come Chicago way.

Gordon Ritchie writes:

I am alive and well and living in Calgary!

1973

Clive Law writes:

After some fun years in the Canadian Armed Forces, I landed a job selling computers. Now I am Ottawa based, and the VP for government sales for a large national company. As a hobby I collect handguns and last year had a book published on the subject. For fun I drive a restored 1970 Triumph TR6 and I'm working on a '67

TR4A. I have been married for the past twelve years to Elizabeth Fournier of Quebec City and we have two great children, Kathleen, 9 and Richard, 7, both of whom speak French as a first language and who are fluently bilingual. I look forward to hearing from my classmates, possibly at a 25 year reunion?

1974

Charles Goodfellow writes:

I am still in London, working with a UK firm of stockbrokers on Emerging Markets; I married last year, no children yet but I'm working on it.

Steve Mulherin wrote to tell us that he is happily married with three children, is working hard and is having as much fun as possible.

Peter Rich writes:

I have been a veterinarian, primarily involved with farm practice here in Cambridge for fourteen years. I am married to Margaret and we have three children, Ceridwyn, 12, Timothy, 10 and Thomas, aged 8.

1975

Mary Murphy writes:

After thirteen years of working in the social service field my latest job presents itself as the ultimate challenge. I'm currently working in a programme which is a rehabilitation programme for Asian male teenagers who have been involved in organised criminal activity. "Youth at Risk" is the usual term. My job is to encourage them on a path of self-awareness and to help them integrate into Canadian culture. I was sad to miss the 20 years reunion for the Class of '75, I would have liked to go. What is everyone doing twenty years later? I wish you all success and happiness in whatever you are doing or wherever you are. Perhaps we shall meet again, sometime... until then, be well!

Kelly Smith writes:

Last year I joined the MDC Corporation group of companies as Vice-President, Corporate Development, responsible for domestic and international sales and marketing for several of the subsidiaries. Lori, Carley, the dogs and I recently moved to Western New York State near one of the production facilities but we have retained our 170 year old stone country house near Perth, Ontario for weekends and holidays. I had hoped to attend the 20 year reunion for the Class of '75, however, at the last minute I had to travel overseas on business and couldn't make it but I trust that everyone who did attend had a fun time.

1976

Esther Gobeil Barna telephoned from Ft. Lauderdale, Florida, where she has been living for the past eleven years. She is coming north for a family wedding in early June and is really hoping to meet some classmates at the Founders' Day reunion weekend.

Wayne Guy writes:

This October we are celebrating the 5th anniversary of the opening of the firm "Northern Design". We have been quite busy and are presently looking for another architect. "Hello" to all the class of '76. Hope to see you all at the reunion.

Marion Mitchell Markham writes:

I am looking forward to our 20th reunion! Thank-you for the last Bulletin, I really enjoy reading all the school news!

1977

Diana Lee Boyd McMahon writes:

We now have a son, John Christopher, born on June 3, 1994, a brother for Victoria who is now 2 years old. We are all healthy and happy and keeping very busy. Evan Ballantyne (BCS '78) and his wife, Christie, are now neighbours and they are the proud parents of a lovely baby girl, Lauren, a sister for William.

1978

Luc Duval was elected President of the Canadian Association of Japanese Automobile Dealers in 1994 and will have finished his term in office by the time this goes to press. He tells us that when he is not travelling he spends his time on the Board of Directors of the Montreal Automobile Dealers Association. He can't wait to get back to his wife and two daughters, Caroline, aged 5 and Anne-Frédéric, 18 months, as well as his two dealerships in Boucherville, Toyota and Mazda. His brother, Bernard (BCS '76) is not so anxious however since he runs competitive Volkswagen and Chevrolet/Oldsmobile dealerships in nearby Longueuil!

1980

Bruce Bryant-Scott writes:

After five years as Priest Assistant at St. George's in St. Catharine's, Ontario, I was recently appointed Rector of the Parish of Pender and Saturna Islands. There are three islands between Vancouver and Victoria and I have a church on each of them. I get around between the Penders and Saturba by ferry or private boat. We have bought a home on an acre with well-developed gardens which should be a wonderful place for our two year old daughter, Sophie, to grow up in.

Katherine (Smyth) Hatheway writes:

My husband, Jim, and I have been living in Amherst, NS, for the last two years after many years in Toronto. We own the Ford Mercury dealership in town and are thoroughly enjoying Maritime life. I have "retired" from the Toronto Dominion Bank after several branch management positions and now work part-time at the dealership and full-time raising our two children, Sara, aged 2 1/2 and Kevin, 10 months. I manage to keep in touch with a few of the BCS crowd from my year and would love to hear from anyone in the area! Thanks for keeping in touch.

John R. Way writes:

My wife, Irene, and I brought our baby, Amanda Sara, into the world on November 27th, 1994. All three of us are doing fine and enjoying life in Rhode Island. I'm in Electronic Sales and my wife is a medical doctor for Harvard Community Health Plan of New England.

1980

Marc Quinet writes:

I was married on December 30th, 1994 to Suzanne at Le Cercle Universitaire in Ottawa. All went well except for the fact that I washed my hair with bubble bath on the morning of my wedding! Many thanks to Raz (Michel Laframboise, BCS '80) and the rest of the class of '80 who helped in giving the rest of us a gentle nudge.

1981

Louise Bruneau Vasich writes:

I am still working for Kelly Services as Service Co-ordinator. I moved to Burlington and am working in Mississauga. I married Ed Vasich in June, 1994, no children as yet! I would love to hear from anyone; life is fabulous!

Louise Bruneau Vasich's wedding party.

Andrew Cruickshank is leaving shortly for Nassau, Bahamas on a work assignment with Bahamas On-Line, a computer company.

Donald McInnes writes:

I have been living in Vancouver for eight years and I am enjoying the West Coast. I worked in mineral exploration for six years. Then I started Western Keltic Mines, a junior VSE company, in 1993. I now have three projects in BC and seven in Panama. I am also taking Blackstone Resources Inc. public in August with eleven properties in the Yukon. Seems I do this well as I am also a director of Peak Media Inc., a soon-to-be Alberta listed company. Peak will be an adventure travel CD-ROM publishing firm. The first product "Summit of Dreams" takes place on Mount Everest. I don't want to retire alone so buy some WKM on the VSE. Visitors are welcome or if you need corporate information, call me at (604) 377-0002.

CLASS NEWS

Gord Somerville writes:

I am still living in Oshawa, the "Golf Business" has been treating me well. I wish I could make the Annual Golf Tournament but some of us have to work! I have two beautiful children, Kailey (5) and Andrew (3). If anyone happens to be blessed with a stopover in Oshawa, please look me up – I know a great pub!

1982

Robin Cruickshank is now living in Vancouver. He continues to work for Canada Trust downtown.

Camarillo Durand Eliseo writes:

First of all, I would like to thank the school for keeping in touch with me. I don't know how you got my new address but I do appreciate it. Secondly, I would like to send my regards to the ones who remember me, and the ones who don't. A special "Hello and a hug" to some of the people I remember dearly: my roommate Greg Stevenson; a nice friend who welcomed me to his home, Sherif Tafros and family; Vicente Vesce, Nelson Morales and José Borgio. Now to talk a little about me. I spent four years studying Business Administration in order to join the family business. I did not get my degree because I neither liked business nor the University so I travelled through Europe and since I had always dreamed of becoming a pilot I went to Miami and got my commercial pilot's license. I'm now working as a pilot with Servicios Aereos Estrella S.A., an executive airline operating charter flights and I fly a Lear jet. Now I have another dream, to fly for a big airline in Canada. Even though I can fly DC-9s in Mexico, I would love to live in Canada, it is such a beautiful country. Thank-you for the opportunity of writing to you about myself – ciao, Eliseo.

Marc Le Pottier writes:

I am selling computer networks to the Great White North! Yes, this (Val d'Or) is remote territory and beautiful, too. Do come and visit. To my fellow classmates: please write BCS and give the world your news. I'm working on bringing the Internet to the region. Hope to hear from you!

1983

Nancy Doddridge writes:

I have been teaching in the Gaspé for three years now. It is a wonderful experience! I have spent the last two years on a native reserve, teaching at Wejqwapniag School and loving it. A more appreciative group you will never find! If it weren't for the six feet of snow, I might be able to see out of my windows! "Hi" to all those that I neglected to keep in touch with.

Maureen Elliott Waterston writes:

My husband, Doug, and I had our first child, Douglas, in December 1994. He is doing well but keeps us very busy. I am currently on leave from my job in employee relations at Ford Electronics in Markham.

1984

Julie Cruickshank is back from her world travels and is working in Ottawa. She would be glad to hear from any old friends.

Joni Scheib moved to Davis, California, after her marriage in December. (See photo on page 29.) Her husband, Andy, is teaching psychology at the University of California and Joni is completing her PhD. studies at the university.

1985

Bruno Roy writes:

I'm married to Anick Lambert and we have a daughter, Claudia, who is two years old. I currently work as a money market trader for The Royal Bank of Canada.

1985

Alison Sims Smerchinski writes:

My husband, Rick, and I had a beautiful baby girl in March 1994. Her name is Lyla Roos. We are expecting an addition to the family in July. (Ed. note: Since Alison wrote to us, the new addition arrived, Peter?)

1986

Kevin Brown writes:

Jacki and I are enjoying life together in la Belle Province. It has been nearly a year since I returned from ex-Yugoslavia and almost two since moving from Victoria. I will be staying until July '96 in Quebec City with Le 1^{er} Bataillon, Royal 22^e Régiment. I hope to join a Ste.-Foy soccer team in the spring to play in the local competitive league. Unfortunately, my pipes have rarely left their box. Slangevhai!

Kate Cruickshank and husband, Andrew, are living in Boston where Kate is working and Andrew is at Tufts Dental School.

1988

Helen Hawkett writes:

I have been working in Kingston for the last year, managing a small café. I am off to Australia in May for three months. My sister, Jane (BCS '81), and husband Colm (a BU assistant at BCS) are in Thunder Bay, he's a doctor and she is in teacher's college.

Sarah (BCS '79) has two kids now and is living happily in North Carolina with husband Bob. My father, Chris, (with his new hips) and mother, Rita (former houseparent of Gilliard), are happy in St. John. I had a blast at Ed Rees' (BCS '88) wedding this past summer. A photo was taken of many BCS alum there, whoever has it please send me a copy and send one to the Bulletin.

James Thomas writes:

I have just finished conceiving and developing a community-run restaurant for lower income single mother families and the elderly.

1989

Julie Ferguson writes:

After obtaining my degree in Economics from UNB in May 1994, I left Canada and began a one-year internship with Hewlett Packard's Belgian office in Brussels. The job is interesting, challenging and teaching me a lot about work management in a European environment. I am loving every minute of living in Europe! I am travelling around a lot, London, Geneva and Paris, as well as many beautiful places around Belgium have been my targets so far, but I will expand my horizons soon when I travel to Athens for a well-earned vacation!

Anne Heenan obtained her degree from Queen's University last year and is now teaching Grade V at the Colegio Cristobal

Colon in Medellin, Colombia. Anne intends to make good use of her spare time during the two years of her contract and has already started to get to know South America. She spent time in Guatemala over the Christmas holidays and is planning a trip to the Amazon for the Easter holidays!

Ann Heenan and a colleague in Colombia.

Raquel Welch writes:

Yes, it's true! I'm getting married to John in May '96! Wow – time sure does fly.... I'm currently working at Desjardins Laurentian Life Insurance in Montreal and living on the West Island. I'm in love, healthy, enjoying life, still doing lots of sports and enjoying the outdoors to its fullest with my dog, Hunter! I still keep in touch with a few BCS folk, my maid of honour is Ann Welch and two of my bridesmaids are Cyndi Toyota and Sarah MacLaren. We are all very close. I still believe that BCS friendships will last forever!

1990

Lisa Michals writes:

I have obtained an English degree and have another year before I complete my Foods/Nutrition degree. I am engaged to Mike LaRochelle (BCS '90) and we are getting married August 5, 1995. He is finishing his last year of Mechanical Engineering. We are both at Western University in London.

Stephanie Smith writes:

I love receiving all the updates concerning life at Bishop's and I had a fabulous time at the reunion held in Halifax last winter. I graduated from Dalhousie last May and am taking a year off from academia to work with Mother Theresa in Calcutta.

1991

We have lots of news from the Class of '91. We hope you will be able to get together for your five year reunion at Founders' Day this year!

Ian Belton now has his degree in Genetics and will be leaving for Chiropractic College in Los Angeles, California, this fall.

Ryan Bernstein writes:

I am currently living in Southern California, pursuing my degree in Human Resource Management at California State University, Long Beach. I've been down here since August '94 and I am also pursuing an acting career. Things are slowly starting to pick up since small roles are now coming my way.

Phil Côté obtained his degree from Western last year and is now a junior master at Lakefield College in Ontario. He writes: "I am buying all the copies of Hip Club Groove I can get!"

Amy Donnachie writes:

Things are going well this year, probably because I am only part-time. I have changed programmes and am now trying to figure out what I need to graduate. I am sorry I missed the Old Girls soccer game this year but I hope to see some "Oldies" soon, especially Erin Moran. I promise, Erin, that someday we will see each other soon! Also "hi" to Michelynn, Julia, Jen and Kristen wherever you all are! Thanks Mr. Goodwin and Mrs. Jelowicki for a short but sweet visit to the Maritimes because, believe it or not, I do miss BCS sometimes!

Astrid Hoogvliet writes:

I am in my fourth and last year of Business Administration at the University of Barcelona. I spent my third year as an exchange student in Maastricht, Holland, it was great! I would love to come for Old Boys and see you all, but it's just a bit far....

Isabel Kruger writes from Germany:

I am finishing my second year of studies in Political Science and Economics at good old Heidelberg University. I am also planning to spend another year in Paris where I met up with Steve Desmeules about two years ago. Does anyone know what he is up to? And Tanya and Jameson, how are you? It would be nice to hear from you again!

Erin Moran writes:

I am graduating this year (1995) with a BSc in Biology and I hope to go to Dental School next year. First, however, I plan to spend the summer in Europe!

Michelynn Poirier writes:

I am finishing my BA Honours in French this year and then plan to travel to Europe in the summer with Julia Ralph (BCS '91) and Alex Forbes (BCS '91). Next year I will be doing my Travel and Tourism degree in Toronto. I look forward to seeing everyone at our five year reunion in 1996!

Left to right: Ilena Jelowicki (BCS '92), Nick Scheib (BCS '91), Gen Bédard (BCS '92) and Erika Marosi (BCS '92).

Loren (now Lawren) Sack's mother writes:

Loren has moved to Bangor, Northern Ireland with a wife! He has applied for the MSW course in Belfast, having completed his BSc. with an English major, (honestly!) last year at McGill. I believe that BCS had a meaningful influence on his life, thank-you!

Kira Smeets writes:

I'm graduating from Western with an English degree! Who would have thought! Hopefully I will be going to law school next year. I visited Marty Lamoureux (BCS '91) last February in New Hampshire and he is doing great. Stephan Scholl (BCS '88) married Claudine Campbell in December, 1994. Guiomar and I sang Ave Maria at the wedding in Toronto. We saw Dominic Scholl (BCS '89) there, Lucy Wild (BCS '90), Sam Kersheh (BCS '88) and Mr. and Mrs. Gallagher. Last, but not least, my cousin, Bjorn Muskus (BCS '92), is at the University of Miami studying Architecture and loving it! (Ed. note: Perhaps we should make Kira our social correspondent. She's full of news!)

CLASS NEWS

1992

Christy Barlow writes with news of many classmates: Laura Osborne is working in Montreal and Pippa Hett is studying at UBC. Jamie M. is studying social behaviour on a regular basis at Queen's and watching a lot of Ricki Lake on the tube. Tracey Wells is studying Arts at Concordia and often sees Josée Bourgault who is also in Montreal. Guy H. is working at Whistler and skiing a lot, Tara H. is working in the Cayman Islands and Laura B. is studying Liberal Arts at the University of Toronto. Cynthia R. is at UBC and Mirna C. is studying in Montreal, planning to spend the summer in Syria.

Ilenna Jelowicki writes:

Graduating finally! Next I hope to be jetsetting the globe for a year. (Actually I'll probably be backpacking, eating rice and hitching rides for a year but jetsetting sounds much better!) Hope everyone is well – love Lenk.

Jameson Yun Shing Har writes:

During the past year I have been continuing my studies at the University of Toronto. These past few years I have been able to keep in touch with many members of the classes of '92 and '93. This summer I plan to return to Hong Kong to work. I also plan to visit Taiwan and stay with Andy Chou (BCS '93).

1993

Richard Ash writes:

I have now lasted thirteen weeks, one whole term, at Strathclyde University. I am recovering from the shock that BCS have agreed to take my brother, Christopher, as an exchange student for the year 1995–1996! All of Lennoxville will be thrilled to hear that at Christmas '95 there will not be one, two or even three, but four Ash family members in Canada. I still have 2 ½ years left at University and then hopefully overseas work with the United Nations or UNICEF. If all else fails I will have to refer back to the old poetry which has become a little redundant at present. I apologise to anyone I have not written to recently, but you should know me by now!

Amanda Jelowicki is in the Broadcast Journalism programme at Concordia and loving it.

Clodagh Slowey writes:

I have finished two years of psychology at Western and I am working part-time as a lifeguard. I am enjoying life after BCS!

Mathieu Veillette writes:

I'm studying civil engineering at Queen's and it's great. I got a summer job in Guyana, helping to expand buildings in a gold mine.

Jonathon Younker writes:

After a year in England I am now at Western. I am still playing basketball and having a great time. E-mail me at <jyounker@julian.uwo.ca>.

1994

Katharine Cross writes:

I was on exchange in 1994 at Blundell's School in Devon, England, where I had a successful year, gaining two "A" levels and a photography prize. I spent the summer in Europe visiting friends and completed a three-week Outward Bound course at Ullswater in England's Lake District. I thoroughly enjoyed the course and the Duke of Edinburgh visited whilst I was there. I am now at Queen's, studying Arts Science, enjoying making new friends and meeting up with old friends from BCS.

Ken Gikunda writes:

After a great time at BCS I am enjoying an awesome time at Queen's. Take care folks – Kwaheri (Swahili for "see 'ya").

Sebastien Schwarz writes:

I am in my last year at Salem School. If there are any exchange students coming to Salem, or even another school in Germany and you are looking for a place to stay before school starts or during the holidays, just let me know!

News From Former Staff

Miss Francine King (Mlle Roy), BCS, 1978–1986 writes:

Bonjour tout le monde! After eight years at BCS I continued teaching ESL in the French public system in the Sherbrooke area. I was also very much involved with track and field: president of the Sherbrooke Club, in charge of officials in Québec and manager of Canadian teams. I participated in many world meets and I travelled to Africa and across Canada and the USA with different Canadian teams.

I gave up teaching and track in 1993 when I started my own business in translation and professional writing, both French and English. I am very happy with this second career choice. I often think of my old students and the Gillard girls and I wonder what life choices they have made. I would enjoy hearing from them. They can reach me at (819) 346-0804 or fax me at (819) 346-3091, or simply write to me at 3648 Wifrid Grégoire, Sherbrooke, QC., J1L 2N3. Au plaisir d'avoir de vos nouvelles! Salutations!

BCS Association

Board of Directors 1995–1996

Past Chairman

Rae Heenan (KHC '55)

Chairman

François de Sainte Marie (BCS '65)

Vice-Chairman

Pat Webster

Honorary Treasurer

James Redpath (BCS '54)

Executive Committee

Stuart H. Cobbett

(Chairman, Foundation Board)

Gill Côté (KHC '62)

Mark Drake

Nancy Layton

Lee Moreland (KHC '65)

Doug Patriquin (BCS '64)

Peter G. White (BCS '56)

Directors

John C. Dunn (BCS '84)

Lynn Goth

John A. Hallward (BCS '79)

Louise Hamelin

Peter Hanna (BCS '66)

Margot Heyerhoff (KHC '69)

Zillah Loney

Derek Park (BCS '74)

Tom Pound

E. Douglas Reynolds (BCS '65)

Manon Vennat

Jennifer Winsor (BCS '83)

Secretary

W. Lewis Evans (BCS '65)

Treasurer

L.M. Sakamoto

Advisory Board

Robert Calder

John Churchill-Smith (BCS '39)

John D. Cowans (BCS '55)

David Cruickshank

Daniel Doheny, Q.C. (BCS '34)

C.L. Ogden Glass (BCS '32)

Rae Heenan (KHC '55)

Peter Hyndman (BCS '59)

James H.G. Kenny (BCS '39)

David H. McLernon (BCS '62)

The Hon. William Mitchell (BCS '26)

David Notman

Hartland L. Price (BCS '46)

Susan Riddell

Jocelyn Shaw (KHC '43)

Patrick Stoker (BCS '38)

Hon. Mr. Justice W.S. Tyndale (BCS '37)

Lorne H. Walls (BCS '47)

Eve Wickwire (KHC '56)

Peter S. Winkworth (BCS '49)

BCS Foundation

Board of Directors 1995–1996

Chairman

Stuart H. Cobbett (BCS '66)

Vice-Chairman & Honourary Treasurer

Timothy E. Price (BCS '75)

Treasurer

Maggie Leblanc

Secretary

W. Lewis Evans (BCS '65)

Members

Rosemary Christensen (KHC '59)

A. Scott Fraser (BCS '46)

Michael G. Huband (BCS '57)

Douglas Mitchell, (BCS '79)

W. Bradley Mitchell (BCS '53)

Susan Khan (KHC '61)

Bartlett H. MacDougall (BCS '54)

Michael R. McMaster (BCS '57)

Susan Riddell

Guthrie Stewart (BCS '73)

E. Michael R. Skutezky (BCS '66)

Joan Winser (KHC '43)

BCS Alumni/æ Association

Board of Directors 1995–1996

President

Jennifer Winsor (BCS '83)

Vice-President

Kurt Johnson (BCS '84)

Directors

Andrew Bissett (BCS '84)

Marc Bruneau (BCS '90)

Neil Cunningham (BCS '77)

Timon Deichmann (BCS '88)

John C. Dunn (BCS '84)

John Gilmour (BCS '83)

Sarah Ivory (BCS '79)

Alex Johnston (BCS '88)

Nicholas Lomasney (BCS '76)

Douglas Mitchell, (BCS '79)

Marty Pommier (BCS '92)

Scott Pritchard (BCS '74)

Geoff Reford (BCS '83)

Fred Scalabrin (BCS '85)

David Stankaitis (BCS '85)

Carlotta Stoker Di Fiore (BCS '81)

